Audretsch,2015-03-02 Every city region and state wants to do better or at the very least not do worse Places have a strong and vigorous concern with and stake in generating a stronger economic performance This concern spans a broad spectrum of constituents and interests including business labor non profit organizations government and private residents However such decision makers mandated with the strategic management of their place receive little guidance or insight from scholars in terms of a systematic framework for evaluating how to generate and sustain a competitive advantage for their place While an entire academic field exists devoted to analyzing how firms and organizations can create and sustain a competitive advantage and ultimately a strong economic performance the field of strategic management in business schools no such analogous field exists which is devoted to guiding and informing decision makers mandated and concerned with the strategic management of their place Everything in Its Place seeks to fill this intellectual void explaining the underlying economic and social factors and the broad spectrum of policies and instruments that can actually influence and enhance economic performance in places Several academic fields have generated a number of important theories empirical findings and case studies that shed considerable light on identifying and unraveling the underlying forces about what shapes this economic performance Combined in this book with the actual experiences and instincts garnered from practitioners and policy makers these insights are integrated together in into a coherent inclusive framework to guide and inform thought leaders and scholars in the strategic management of places

NASA and the American South Brian C. Odom,Stephen P. Waring,2024-01-16 This volume examines NASA s strong ties to the American South exploring how the space program and the region have influenced each other since NASA s founding in 1958 Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis ,1983 House Reports ,1964 Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1995 Fossil Energy Update ,1983 Annual Report of the American Historical Association American Historical Association,1898 Carry it on Susan Youngblood Ashmore,2008 Carry It On is an in depth study of how the local struggle for equality in Alabama fared in the wake of new federal laws the Civil Rights Act the Economic Opportunity Act and the Voting Rights Act Susan Youngblood Ashmore provides a sharper definition to changes set in motion by the fall of legal segregation She focuses her detailed story on the Alabama Black Belt and on the local projects funded by the Office of Economic Opportunity OEO the federal agency that supported programs in a variety of cities and towns in Alabama Black Belt activists who used OEO funds understood that the structural underpinnings of poverty were key components of white supremacy says Ashmore They were motivated not only to end poverty but also to force local governments to comply with new federal legislation aimed at achieving racial equality on a number of fronts Ashmore looks closely at the interactions among local activists elected officials businesspeople landowners bureaucrats and others who were involved in or affected by OEO projects Carry It On offers a nuanced picture of the OEO an agency too broadly criticized a new look at the rise of southern Black Power and a compelling portrait of local citizens struggling for control over their own lives Ashmore provides a more complete understanding of how southerners worked to define for themselves how freedom would come during the years shaped by the civil rights movement and the war on poverty Government Reports Announcements & Index ,1981

A Right to Read Patterson Toby Graham,2002-04-11 A Right to Read is the first book to examine public library segregation from its origins in the late 19th century through its end during the tumultuous years of the 1960s civil rights movement Graham focuses on Alabama where African Americans denied access to white libraries worked to establish and maintain their own Negro branches These libraries separate but never equal were always underfunded and inadequately prepared to meet the needs of their constituencies BOOK JACKET Management ,1989 Management, a Bibliography for NASA Managers ,1989 Asian Security Handbook William M. Carpenter,David G. Wiencek,James R. Lilley,2016-09-16 This thoroughly revised and updated edition of Asian Security Handbook focuses on the new challenges to security in the Asia Pacific region presented by international terrorism It reviews old security realities covered in previous editions and highlights more recent security issues in the region including the North Korean threat weapons of mass destruction proliferation the South China Sea dispute and the future U S China rivalry Featuring contributions by a distinguished group of international security and Asia experts this new edition has been reformatted and restructured A new introductory chapter on terrorism sets the stage for the country by country profiles and assessments of the political security situations in twenty three individual nations A new appendix on foreign terrorist organizations is also included NASA SP-7500 United States.
