

My daughter was murdered a year and a half ago. Every condolence letter I received contained much the same kind of sentiment—"I know how little words can help at a time like this. . . ." But those writers were wrong. Every word did help. The fact that so many people cared enough to write helped me enormously in my grief.

I care about the violence done to Larry Flynt. I am full of sorrow and indignation, and for Larry's comfort I offer the shortest, simplest theological statement I have ever read. It is by the American poet Ezra Pound; near the end of his long poem The Cantos he writes: "Pray. There is power."

It doesn't matter if you think the power is inside you, or outside—or both—or whether you call it Jesus, Buddha or ten other names. It doesn't matter whether you understand it or whether you are baffled by it. The important thing is this: Power is there and it can help. May Larry find that power, and use it well.
