an untouchable Akin to a dark shadow following him the ugly truth remained that his mother was indeed the biggest whore in England and his presumed father was no less than a pox ridden madman Likewise Simon Singleton's poetic proclivities had instantly made him the bullies mark and even Edward Chambers great size had served as little deterrent for the upper classmen's taunts when accompanied by adolescent awkwardness and a broad North Country drawl By the end of the first form however the three young outcasts had forged an iron clad bond that would maintain them through nearly six years DeVere's finely honed shell of arrogance Ned's increasing brawn and Sin's rapier wit gave birth to an unholy triumvirate that would come to wreak perpetual and unchallenged havoc upon Westminster School A Note from the Author When I first conceived A WILD NIGHT'S BRIDE a Georgian set Hangover inspired romantic comedy I had no idea that one devilish secondary character would spawn an entire series but Ludovic Viscount DeVere proved to be a dream come true This larger than life character has captured the hearts of so many fans who have begged for more DeVere So without further ado Here is how it all began
