deliver on their promise It s this better world a world in which communities schools and classrooms work together as a whole child ecosystem Beyond Crises Overcoming Linguistic and Cultural Inequities in Communities Schools and Classrooms sets out to create Taking a look from the outside in Debbie Zacarian Margarita Calder n and Margo Gottlieb address three critical arenas 1 Imagining Communities describes how to design and enact strengths based family and community partnerships including the critical importance of identifying valuing and acknowledging each member s assets and competencies and the ways recent crises have amplified their struggles 2 Imagining Schools takes an up close look at policies structures and now irrelevant ways of schooling that call for change and how we might reconfigure professional development to ensure every teacher and administrator is dedicated to the well being and success of our multilingual learners 3 Imagining Classrooms demonstrates how to optimize learning opportunities both virtual and face to face so our diverse students grow cognitively linguistically and social emotionally and accentuate their talents in knowing and using multiple languages in linguistically and culturally sustainable environments Student and family classroom school and local community are not silos unto themselves Debbie Margarita and Margo insist They are part of a larger whole that is interrelated and interconnected and even interdependent on each other By forming stronger alliances we can realize the power of truly working socializing and flourishing together Beyond Crises is the first critical step forward Keys to Success at School and Beyond Mehdi

Solis,1995-10-24 For peoples whose legal agreements treaties and other accords and conventions with the United States have been violated multiculturalism as a pedagogical tool often becomes suspect of reinforcing the continued reification and abstraction of their cultures and nations with little if any real meaning for educational and social transformation The continued oppression and repression of the exercise of self determination for African Americans the persistence of policies aimed at the destruction of indigenous populations and land the insidious continuation of classical colonialism in the case of Puerto Rico are all vivid reminders to these peoples of the racist classist sexist and homophobic patriarchy that characterizes their status In order to restore people s rights to fully determine their own histories Jackson and Solis point out that it is imperative to destroy the material foundations that breed and recycle the ideology discourse and cultural practices of domination It is not enough to celebrate diversity and difference there must be grand scale social political economic and educational transformation Brio & Beyond ,2005 Beyond Theory and Degrees James E.
