The English Version of the Polyglot Bible Containing the Old and New Testaments : with a Copious and Original Selection of References to Parallel and Illustrative Passages, 1870*      Measuring the Master Race Jon Røyne

Kyllingstad, 2014-12-22 The notion of a superior Germanic or Nordic race was a central theme in Nazi ideology But it was also a commonly accepted idea in the early twentieth century an actual scientific concept originating from anthropological research on the physical characteristics of Europeans The Scandinavian Peninsula was considered to be the historical cradle and the heartland of this master race Measuring the Master Race investigates the role played by Scandinavian scholars in inventing this so called superior race and discusses how the concept stamped Norwegian physical anthropology prehistory national identity and the eugenics movement It also explores the decline and scientific discrediting of these ideas in the 1930s as they came to be associated with the genetic cleansing of Nazi Germany This is the first comprehensive study of Norwegian physical anthropology Its findings shed new light on current political and scientific debates about race across the globe      Lillia Forsythe, 2009-12-07 After a disastrous chance encounter with a twin he never knew Chevelle is left unsettled and vulnerable just in time to become pawn to a killer for hire who happens to be the world's oldest dhampir This new master spirits Chevelle away to Japan and forces him to learn who and what he is a dhampir the bastard son of a vampire with the power to see the future      Transnational Literacy Autobiographies as Translingual Writing Suresh Canagarajah, 2019-07-08

The literacy autobiography is a personal narrative reflecting on how one's experiences of spoken and written words have contributed to their ongoing relationship with language and literacy Transnational Literacy Autobiographies as Translingual Writing is a cutting edge study of this engaging genre of writing in academic and professional contexts In this state of the art collection Suresh Canagarajah brings together 11 samples of writing by students that both document their literary journeys and pinpoint the seminal works affecting their development as translingual readers and writers Integrating the narrative of the author which is written as his own literacy autobiography with a close analysis of these texts this book presents a case for the literacy autobiography as an archetypal genre that prepares writers for the conventions and processes required in other genres of writing demonstrates the serious epistemological and rhetorical implications behind the genre of literacy autobiography among migrant scholars and students effectively translates theoretical publications on language diversity for classroom purposes providing a transferable teaching approach to translingual writing analyzes the tropes of transnational writers and their craft in meshing translingual resources in their writing demonstrates how transnationalism and translingualism are interconnected guiding readers toward an understanding of codemeshing not as a cosmetic addition to texts but motivated toward resolving inescapable personal and social dilemmas Written and edited by one of the most highly regarded linguists of his generation this book is key reading for scholars and students of applied linguistics TESOL and literacy studies as well as tutors of writing and composition worldwide      The Thesis Writing Journeys of Bachelor's and Master's Students Bojana Petrić, Montserrat Castelló, 2024-12-20 Completing a thesis is a crucial final stage in many bachelor's and master's programmes across Europe and beyond. However, the process of thesis writing, how it is experienced by the writers, and how those experiences impact on writing remain underexplored. This book examines the student experience of thesis writing through an interdisciplinary perspective, drawing on theories of learning, emotions, and genre, and narrative discursive analysis. As a result of this approach, the thesis is reconceptualised as a multilayered experience from the point of view of student writers. The chapters, which arose out of a collaborative research project across 10 European countries, employ an innovative combination of methods, including the use of journey plots, to provide a complex picture of the thesis writing process, which will be of interest to readers involved in academic writing at all levels. □□□□□□ □□□□□□ □□□□
