Reading for Our Lives Maya Payne Smart,2022-08-02 An award winning journalist and literacy advocate provides a clear step by step guide to helping your child thrive as a reader and a learner When her child went off to school Maya Smart was shocked to discover that a good education in America is a long shot in ways that few parents fully appreciate Our current approach to literacy offers too little too late and attempting to play catch up when our kids get to kindergarten can no longer be our default strategy We have to start at the top The brain architecture for reading develops rapidly during infancy and early language experiences are critical to building it That means parents work as children s first teachers begins from day one too and we need deeper knowledge to play our positions Reading for Our Lives challenges the bath book bed mantra and the idea that reading aloud to our kids is enough to ensure school readiness Instead it gives parents easy immediate and accessible ways to nurture language and literacy development from the start Through personal stories historical accounts scholarly research and practical tips this book presents the life and death urgency of literacy investigates inequity in reading achievement and illuminates a path to a true transformative education for all School ,1926 Beeline Shalini Shankar,2019-04-30 An anthropologist uses spelling bees as a lens to examine the unique and diverse traits of Generation Z and why they are destined for success At first glance Generation Z youth born after 1997 seems to be made up of anxious overachievers hounded by Tiger Moms and constantly tracked on social media One would think that competitors in the National Spelling Bee the most popular brain sport in America would be the worst off Counterintuitively anthropologist Shalini Shankar argues that far from being simply overstressed and overscheduled Gen Z spelling bee competitors are learning crucial twenty first century skills from their high powered lives displaying a sophisticated understanding of self promotion self direction and social mobility Drawing on original ethnographic research including interviews with participants judges and parents Shankar examines the outsize impact of immigrant parents and explains why Gen Z kids are on a path to success
