Guy Leschziner, 2025-10-16 In The Man Who Tasted Words Guy Leschziner leads readers through the senses and how through them our brain understands or misunderstands the world around us Vision hearing taste smell and touch are what we rely on to perceive the reality of our world Our senses are the conduits that bring us the scent of a freshly brewed cup of coffee or the notes of a favorite song suddenly playing on the radio But are they really that reliable The Man Who Tasted Words shows that what we perceive to be absolute truths of the world around us is actually a complex internal reconstruction by our minds and nervous systems The translation into experiences with conscious meaning the pattern of light and dark on the retina that is transformed into the face of a loved one for instance is a process that is invisible undetected by ourselves and in most cases completely out of our control In The Man Who Tasted Words neurologist Guy Leschziner explores how our nervous systems define our worlds and how we can in fact be victims of falsehoods perpetrated by our own brains In his moving and lyrical chronicles of lives turned upside down by a disruption in one or more of their five senses he introduces readers to extraordinary individuals like one man who actually tasted words and shows us how sensory disruptions like that have played havoc not only with their view of the world but with their relationships as well The cases Leschziner shares in The Man Who Tasted Words are extreme but they are also human and teach us how our lives and what we perceive as reality are both ultimately defined by the complexities of our nervous systems Femmephobe! Conrad Riker, 101-01-01 The Left's War on Men Is Just Female Nature in Disguise Have you ever been called a misogynist for simply disagreeing with a woman Have you watched Western institutions collapse while women lead the charge and claim it's justice Have you sensed that modern ideology isn't about equality but about infantilizing men and deifying female emotion This book is not what they say it is It's the reverse engineering of a psychological epidemic What looks like political ideology is actually biological script female nature dressed as moral progress What passes for social justice is maternal authoritarianism scaled to civilization killing proportions The left didn't invent this it was built by women for women using the language of care to mask control How equity is just maternal favoritism weaponized into public policy Why women dominate victimhood hierarchies and why men are always the villains The real reason feminism and Marxism fused and who benefits How female emotional intensity became the engine of cancel culture Why women abandoned motherhood and replaced it with political mothering The psychological profile of the modern woman and how it maps perfectly onto leftist dogma How language has been hijacked to punish dissent and reward female whim Why men are taxed shamed and silenced while women are never held accountable If you want to understand how the world flipped and how to think clearly again despite the propaganda buy this book today
