CHANGES (English edition) Thomas Oberender, 2022-01-24 Changes features a collection of key texts and ideas by artists intellectuals and curators who have rethought and redefined the way a cultural institution should work Alongside these documents five essays establish guidelines for describing the institution s experimental and vastly innovative conceptual approach over the last ten years the new meaning of format as distinct from artistic work the issue of sustainability in cultural institutions identity politics immersion and digital culture A reader on the positioning of a pioneering German cultural institution that invites us to take a look at what has shaped the profile of its innovative programme With texts and contributions by Fr d rique A t Touati Ed Atkins Sivan Ben Yishai Jens Bisky Emanuele Coccia Brian Eno Naika Foroutan Dorothea von Hantelmann Donna Haraway Susanne Kennedy William Kentridge Signa K stler Bruno Latour Robert Maharajh Bonaventure Soh Bejeng Ndikung Thomas Oberender David OReilly Diana Palm Philippe Parreno Nancy Pettinicchio Alex Ross Stephanie Rosenthal Rebecca Saunders Frank Schirrmacher Stephan Schwingeler Tino Sehgal Markus Selg Gabriele St tzer Lucien Strauch The Medieval Chronicle 12 ,2019-03-19 Alongside annals chronicles were the main genre of historical writing in the Middle Ages Their significance as sources for the study of medieval history and culture is today widely recognised not only by historians but also by students of medieval literature and linguistics and by art historians The series The Medieval Chronicle aims to provide a representative survey of the on going research in the field of chronicle studies illustrated by examples from specific chronicles from a wide variety of countries periods and cultural backgrounds There are several reasons why the chronicle is particularly suited as the topic of a yearbook In the first place there is its ubiquity all over Europe and throughout the Middle Ages chronicles were written both in Latin and in the vernacular and not only in Europe but also in the countries neighbouring on it like those of the Arabic world Secondly all chronicles raise such questions as by whom for whom or for what purpose were they written how do they reconstruct the past what determined the choice of verse or prose or what kind of literary influences are discernable in them Finally many chronicles have been beautifully illuminated and the relation between text and image leads to a wholly different set of questions The Medieval Chronicle is published in cooperation with the Medieval Chronicle Society medievalchronicle.org The Old English Version of Bede's Historia Ecclesiastica Sharon M. Rowley, 2011 Pioneering examination of the Old English version of Bede s Historia ecclesiastica and its reception in the middle ages from a theoretically informed multi disciplinary perspective The first full length study of the Old English version of Bede s masterwork dealing with one of the most important texts to survive from Anglo Saxon England The subjects treated range from a detailed analysis of the manuscripts and the medieval use of them to a very satisfying conclusion that summarizes all the major issues related to the work giving a compelling summary of the value and importance of this independent creation Dr Rowley convincingly argues that the Old English version is not an inferior imitation of Bede s work but represents an intelligent reworking of the text for a later generation An exhaustive study and a major scholarly contribution GEORGE HARDIN BROWN Professor of English emeritus Stanford University The Old English version of Bede's Historia ecclesiastica gentis anglorum is one of the earliest and most substantial surviving works of Old English prose Translated anonymously around the end of the ninth or beginning of the tenth century the text which is substantially shorter than Bede's original was well known and actively used in medieval England and was highly influential However despite its importance it has been little studied In this first book on the subject the author places the work in its manuscript context arguing that the text was an independent ecclesiastical translation thoughtfully revised for its new audience Rather than looking back on the age of Bede from the perspective of a king centralizing power and building a community by recalling a glorious English past the Old English version of Bede's Historia transforms its source to focus on local history key Anglo Saxon saints and their miracles The author argues that its reading reflects an ecclesiastical setting more than a political one with uses more hagiographical than royal and that rather than being used as a class book or crib it functioned as a resource for vernacular preaching as a corpus of vernacular saints lives for oral performance and episcopal authority Sharon M Rowley is Associate Professor of English at Christopher Newport University

The Critical Editing of Music James Grier, 1996-08-15 The book follows the activities inherent in music editing including the tasks of the editor the nature of musical sources and transcription Grier also discusses the difficult decisions faced by the editor such as sources not associated with the composer and necessary editorial judgement

Lutyens, Maconchy, Williams and Twentieth-Century British Music Rhiannon Mathias, 2016-05-13 Elisabeth Lutyens 1906 1983 Elizabeth Maconchy 1907 1994 and Grace Williams 1906 1977 were contemporaries at the Royal College of Music The three composers careers were launched with performances in the Macnaghten Lemare Concerts in the 1930s a time when in Britain as Williams noted a woman composer was considered very odd indeed Even so by the early 1940s all three had made remarkable advances in their work Lutyens had become the first British composer to use 12 note technique in her Chamber Concerto No 1 1939 40 Maconchy had composed four string quartets of outstanding quality and was busy rethinking the genre and Williams had won recognition as a composer with great flair for orchestral writing with her Fantasia on Welsh Nursery Tunes 1940 and Sea Sketches 1944 In the following years Lutyens Maconchy and Williams went on to compose music of striking quality and to attain prominent positions within the British music scene Their respective achievements broke through the sound ceiling challenging many of the traditional assumptions which accompanied music by female composers Rhiannon Mathias traces the development of these three important composers through analysis of selected works The book draws upon previously unexplored material as well as radio and television interviews with the composers themselves and with their contemporaries The musical analysis and contextual material lead to a re evaluation of the composers positions in the context of twentieth century British music history
