The Evolutionary Argument against Naturalism Jim Slagle, 2021-06-17 Contemporary discussions in metaphysics epistemology and philosophy of mind are dominated by the presupposition of naturalism Arguing against this established convention Jim Slagle offers a thorough defence of Alvin Plantinga's Evolutionary Argument against Naturalism EAAN and in doing so reveals how it shows that evolution and naturalism are incompatible Charting the development of Plantinga's argument Slagle asserts that the probability of our cognitive faculties reliably producing true beliefs is low if ontological naturalism is true and therefore all other beliefs produced by these faculties including naturalism itself are self defeating He critiques other well known epistemological approaches including those of Descartes and Quine and deftly counters the many objections against the EAAN to conclude that metaphysical naturalism should be rejected on the grounds of self defeat By situating Plantinga's argument within a wider context and showing that science and evolution cannot entail naturalism Slagle renders this most common metaphysical view irrational As such the book advocates an important reconsideration of contemporary thought at the intersection of philosophy science and religion

Global Challenges - Local Responses Daniel Fleming, 2006 Global Issues in the United Nations' Framework Paul Taylor, A.J.R. Groom, 1989-06-18 After World War II the United Nations set up a number of special conferences to deal with new problems in international diplomacy which had arisen This looks at the significance of these conferences and the implications of the changes for the effectiveness of the United Nations framework
