Go Tell It On The Mountain:

Go Tell It on the Mountain James Baldwin, 2013-09-12 One of the most brilliant and provocative American writers of the twentieth century chronicles a fourteen year old boy's spiritual, sexual and moral struggle of self-invention in this truly extraordinary novel. Chicago Sun Times Baldwin's classic novel opened new possibilities in the American language and in the way Americans understand themselves. With lyrical precision, psychological directness, resonating symbolic power and a rage that is at once unrelenting and compassionate, Baldwin tells the story of the stepson of the minister of a storefront Pentecostal church in Harlem. One Saturday in March of 1935. Originally published in 1953, Baldwin said of his first novel, Mountain is the book I had to write if I was ever going to write anything else. James Baldwin's Go Tell it on the Mountain Carol E. Henderson, 2006 The publication of James Baldwin's Go Tell It on the Mountain ushered in a new age of the urban telling of a tale twice told yet rarely expressed in such vivid portraits. Go Tell It unveils the struggle of man with his God and that of man with himself. Baldwin's intense scrutiny of the spiritual and communal customs that serve as moral centers of the black community directs attention to the striking incongruities of religious fundamentalism and oppression. This book examines these multiple impulses challenging the widely held convention that politics and religion do not mix. Go, Tell It on the Mountain Gretchen Wolff Pritchard, 2000-01-01 Here are three different Christmas pageants complete with music, staging, directions, scenery and costume suggestions plus pointers about how to organize your event. The pageants are for grades K-8 but one also calls for adults and teens. The first pageant is a traditional Nativity play with carols; the second is an adaptation in verse in the style of medieval mystery plays; and the third is a dramatized service of lessons and carols with Eucharist. Some churches adopt one pageant as an annual production; others try a different one each year. Pageant 1: Good News of Great Joy. This is the simplest pageant in concept and uses the Isaiah text of the prophecies with scenes of the Annunciation, the arrival at Bethlehem, the shepherds and the Magi. It is intended to replace the sermon or Liturgy of the Word or stand alone. Pageant 2: A Child of Might. This production is based on medieval mystery plays with static staging that is easier than in pageant 1. However, it does use archaic English and requires memorization. It does not include the Magi but introduces several characters not usually found in other pageants. Pageant 3: People Look East. This version presents a dramatized service of Lessons and Carols for Advent and Christmas. It features nine scripture readings, each followed by a carol or hymn with performance options. Children mime the readings. It is intended to be an entire Sunday liturgy, includes communion. Go Tell It On the Mountain is also available as a downloadable product on the Church Publishing website.
