

American History: 1789 – 1837 (Study Guide)

Washington Through Jackson

Topic 1: The First Four Presidents

- What issue(s) caused the formation of political parties in the 1790's?
When the constitution was being ratified, there was a question of should the how much power should the federal government have and the federalist party and the anti federalist formed. These differences mainly came from Hamilton and Jefferson, as they had so many different thoughts, and those who believed in Hamilton's indeed were the federalist, and those who believed in Jefferson's were called the republicans.

Hamilton's views:

- concentrating power in the federal government
- fear of mob rule
- strong national government
- republic of a wise elite
- thought that the national bank was constitutional
- economy based on shipping and manufacturing
- payment of national and state debts
- supporters: merchants, landowners, clergy, richer class

Jefferson's Views:

- sharing power with state and local government
- fear of absolute power (monarch or monarchy)
- limited national government
- democracy of farmers and common folk
- National Bank unconstitutional
- economy based on farming
- supporters: common folk, farmers

- What were the major challenges George Washington faced when he took over as president?
 - Although the constitution did provide a government, it did not address all issues, so Washington and congress had to come up ways in which they could raise money, and provide a defense. He also did the Judiciary Act.

Rury,2023-10-13 An Age of Accountability highlights the role of test based accountability as a policy framework in American education from 1970 to 2020 For more than half a century the quest to hold schools and educators accountable for academic achievement has relied almost exclusively on standardized assessment The theory of change embedded in almost all test based accountability programs held that assessment with stipulated consequences could lead to major improvements in schools This was accomplished politically by proclaiming lofty goals of attaining universal proficiency and closing achievement gaps which repeatedly failed to materialize But even after very clear disappointments no other policy framework has emerged to challenge its hegemony The American public today has little confidence in institutions to improve the quality of goods and services they provide especially in the public sector As a consequence many Americans continue to believe that accountability remains a vital necessity even if educators and policy scholars disagree Catalog National Clearinghouse on Child Abuse & Neglect Information (U.S.), Teaching with Purpose James D.
