Seven Resources for Lifelong Wellbeing and Retirement Planning Vivian Weiqun Lou,Clio Yuen Man Cheng,2024-01-05 Seven Resources for Lifelong Wellbeing and Retirement Planning The Golden Age Playbook redefines aging and retirement for the young old generation The book emerged as a result of the pioneering Jockey Club Golden Age Journey Project a comprehensive initiative designed to empower individuals aged 50 to 74 in embracing their golden years with wisdom vitality and enthusiasm Drawing from empirical evidence the authors developed the Second Half Wellbeing SHW Framework which ingeniously links seven essential resources that pave the way for a fulfilling and purposeful life This book is a testament to their commitment to inspire and uplift the young old generation The Golden Yoke Rebecca Redwood French,2019-06-07 The Golden Yoke is a remarkable achievement It is the first elaboration of the legal cultural and ideological dimensions of precommunist Tibetan jurisprudence a unique legal system that maintains its secularism within a thoroughly Buddhist setting Layer by layer Rebecca Redwood French reconstructs the daily operation of law in Tibet before the Chinese invasion in 1959 In the Tibetans own words French identifies their courts symbols and personnel and traces the procedures for petitioning and filing documents There are stories here from judges legal conciliators and lay people about murder property disputes and divorce French shows that Tibetan law is deeply embedded in its Buddhist culture and that the system evolved not from the rules and judgments but from what people actually do and say In what amounts to a fully developed cosmology she describes the cultural foundation that informs the system myths notions of time and conflux inner morality language patterns rituals use of space symbols and concepts Based on extensive readings of Tibetan legal documents and codes interviews with Tibetan scholars and the reminiscences of Tibetans at home and in exile this generously illustrated elegantly written work is a model of outstanding research French combines the talents of a legal anthropologist with those of a former law practitioner to develop a new field of study that has implications for other judicial systems including our own Television's Second Golden Age Robert J. Thompson,1997-10-01 This is an insider's tour touching on the network's dizzying decision making process and the artists who have revolutionized the medium Resources in Education ,2000-10 Race, Social Science and the Crisis of Manhood, 1890-1970 Malinda Elaine Lindquist,2012-05-31 Black Social Science and the Crisis of Manhood 1890 1970 describes the young black male crisis why we are largely unfamiliar with the story of the black superman and why this matters to contemporary debates It does so by returning to the work of those original black social scientists to explore the ways in which they understood the challenges of black manhood offered substantive critiques of the nation's race class and gender systems and worked to construct a progression The careful study of their work reveals the centrality of gender to discussions of race and class and also new possibilities for understanding and discussing black men This book offers a look at pioneering black social scientists as well as a history of the changing perceptions ideals and shifting depictions of black and white manhood over nearly a century The Golden Triangle Arthur Asa Berger,2017-07-05 This book offers a semiotically informed ethnographic study of contemporary culture in Rajasthan and India It adapts the methodology of analyzing cultures found in Roland Barthes semiotic portrait of Japanese culture Empire of Signs but adds an analysis of lifestyles as explicated in the work of social anthropologist Mary Douglas political scientist Aaron Wildavsky and a number of other social scientists This manuscript is at first a guide to Rajasthan and India and it is that but it is also more in that it considers tourism from both an anthropological and sociological level Berger begins with statistics on tourism and other aspects of life in Rajasthan and India and then considers how tourism in India compares with tourism in other important tourism destinations He refers to the Imaginary India as the picture created in tourists minds with the help of guidebooks media and the Internet before they actually travel to India He then discusses these representations and how they are actually different from the country itself The trip itself then becomes the search for the authentic India the goal is to find places before they are discovered He calls this Semiotic Rajasthan where the representations are compared to actuality After offering a discussion of semiotic theory it interprets and analyzes a number of important aspects of Rajasthani and Indian culture such as the Taj Mahal the Palace of Winds in Jaipur the notorious rat temple in Deshnok and sacred cows Lastly he discusses his own trip and how the impact of Rajasthan did not fully register until he returned home This manuscript's strength lies in the author's ability to write in an accessible manner assemble the project in an interesting way and include only that information which will guide the reader along the narrative trail While this manuscript really is a guidebook to Rajasthan it could also serve as a good introduction to ethnography for beginning students and an interested general audience It moves from basic explanations such as that of semiotics to complex applications all with the grace of good story telling Catalog of Copyright Entries.
