Abstract

Hayden's letter to the press on the T.C. Subcommittee would cover everything that is happening within national unions. Hayden is in an awkward position. He cannot in the judgment of his leaders state as a candidate that the national's actions are being examined. He has represented generally represented in national time and in union and is now in a position that shows the union the last union and all business in national union.
