Lerner, 2024-02-06 Drawing on the tools of game design to fix democracy Anyone who has ever been to a public hearing or community meeting would agree that participatory democracy can be boring Hours of repetitive presentations alternately alarmist or complacent for or against accompanied by constant heckling often with no clear outcome or decision Is this the best democracy can offer In Making Democracy Fun Josh Lerner offers a novel solution for the sad state of our deliberative democracy the power of good game design What if public meetings featured competition and collaboration such as team challenges clear rules presented and modeled in multiple ways measurable progress such as scores and levels and engaging sounds and visuals These game mechanics would make meetings more effective and more enjoyable even fun Lerner reports that institutions as diverse as the United Nations the U S Army and grassroots community groups are already using games and game like processes to encourage participation Drawing on more than a decade of practical experience and extensive research he explains how games have been integrated into a variety of public programs in North and South America He offers rich stories of game techniques in action in children s councils social service programs and participatory budgeting and planning With these real world examples in mind Lerner describes five kinds of games and twenty six game mechanics that are especially relevant for democracy He finds that when governments and organizations use games and design their programs to be more like games public participation becomes more attractive effective and transparent Game design can make democracy fun and make it work Bright Kids Who Couldn't Care Less Ellen Braaten,2023-03-31 Keywords unmotivated underachieving underachievers underperforming children parenting self help lazy teens adolescents parents guide psychology how to get my child to work harder anxiety depression ADHD hates school not interested in anything Description He s so smart but he s no longer interested in school or any offline activities She used to love sports but now she just mopes around My kid has turned into such a slacker Over the course of her 25 year career psychologist and learning expert Ellen Braaten has begun to notice a trend More and more parents are coming to her because their kids couldn t care less about anything How do bright motivated young children become such unmotivated older kids and teens and what can parents do about it In this warm and encouraging guide Dr Braaten explains that kids who have lost the will to do anything other than play video games need more than simple encouragement or the right school teacher or coach to get back on track Instead Dr Braaten helps parents understand the myriad biological emotional cognitive and social factors that affect motivation and build a plan to boost their child s confidence incentive to learn and engagement in life Sports Psychology For Dummies Leif H. Symposium on Satanism (JCR Vol. 1 No. 2) R. J. Rushdoony,Gary North,David Ketchen,Thomas Molnar,Mark Wyndham,Diana Lynn Walzel,F. Seth Dyrness,Jean C. Blasdale,Greg Bahnsen,2019-03-22 Witchcraft occultism paranormal science and mysticism are growing like plagues in the Western world These phenomena have baffled modern educators and conventional rationalists since such activities seem to be completely opposed to everything that the public schools have taught for over a hundred years Worst of all in the minds of conventional secularists all this discussion of demonic forces may lead to an even more appalling conclusion the idea that God also a supernatural force may reappear in the modern post Christian world At all costs a God who can make himself felt in time and on earth must be avoided Mysticism is one thing totally internalized but supernatural forces are not supposed to have any impact on external so called phenomenal affairs Occultism is another form of humanism It is the product of the quest for power apart from God and His law order It was not a major force in the so called Dark Ages Not until the fifteenth century did witchcraft become a serious problem in Europe and it was the Renaissance not medievalism which sparked the great explosion of demonism and magic in the sixteenth century

During the period of the early Middle Ages A D 500 1000 there were practically no signs of witchcraft in Europe Only with the revival of ancient Gnosticism and the invasion of Middle Eastern dualism did signs of widespread witchcraft reappear Occultism and humanism are not sworn enemies they are first cousins It was only the influence of Christian principles which laid such stress on the orderliness of God s universe that made possible the confidence of modern rationalists in denying the influence of supernatural forces As the confidence in creation law has waned in this century rational humanism has become increasingly unsuccessful in retarding the expansion of occult humanism This Journal of Christian Reconstruction offers readers the necessary evidence for a refutation of the familiar charge that occultism and religion necessarily go together and that only a hard headed rationalism can restrain the forces of spiritual anarchy Far from retarding occultism modern rationalism s blindness to the reality of occult forces is now creating a perverse inquisitiveness on the part of modernism s children who have learned to be critical of everything including old fashioned rationalism The philosophy of the open universe closed to God has produced the new occult experimentalism If anything except Christian orthodoxy might be true why not find out through personal observation and experiment Since 1965 the Western world has faced the greatest explosion of occultism that it has seen in three hundred years This time no one can blame orthodox Christianity it has been the secularists who have wielded the power The Education Index ,1983 Sketching Interiors at the Speed of
