

Prayer Before Meals

"Bless us, O Lord, and these Thy gifts which we are about to receive from Thy bounty. Through Christ our Lord. Amen."

Lord, we gather before You to receive this food with gratitude in our hearts. Bless it to our bodies and nourish us, we pray. Amen.

"O God, we thank You for this food and for Your constant provision in our lives. Bless it to our bodies. Amen."

"Lord Jesus, bless this food to our use and us to Your service. Amen."

Meal Prayer For Funeral:

Accompany Them with Singing--The Christian Funeral Thomas G. Long, 2009-10-02 Thomas Long begins this fascinating volume by describing how the Christian funeral developed historically theologically and liturgically and then discusses recent cultural trends in funeral practices including the rise in both cremations and memorial services He describes the basic pattern for a funeral service details options in funeral planning identifies characteristics of a good funeral and provides thoughtful guidance for preaching at a funeral Long also notes a disturbing trend toward funeral services that seem theologically right and pastorally caring but actually depart from the primary aims of the Christian funeral He argues that a new less theological and less satisfying service that focuses on the mourner has begun to erode the Christian view He contrasts the ancient grand community drama with today's trend toward body less memorial services that focus primarily on the living and grief management This is a loss for the church he argues and he calls for the church to reclaim the classic metaphor

Food, Feasts, and Faith Paul Fieldhouse, 2017-04-17 An indispensable resource for exploring food and faith this two volume set offers information on food related religious beliefs customs and practices from around the world Why do Catholics eat fish on Fridays Why are there retirement homes for aged cows in India What culture holds ceremonies to welcome the first salmon More than five billion people worldwide claim a religious identity that shapes the way they think about themselves how they act and what they eat Food Feasts and Faith An Encyclopedia of Food Culture in World Religions explores how the food we eat every day often serves purposes other than to keep us healthy and stay alive we eat to express our faith and to adhere to ethnic or cultural traditions that are part of who we are This book provides readers with an understanding of the rich world of food and faith It contains more than 200 alphabetically arranged entries that describe the beliefs and customs of well established major world religions and sects as well as those of smaller faith communities and new religious movements The entries cover topics such as religious food rules religious festivals and symbolic foods and vegetarianism and veganism as well as general themes such as rites of passage social justice hospitality and compassion Each entry on religion explains what the religious dietary laws and guidelines are and how these were interpreted and put into practice historically and in modern settings The coverage also includes important festivals and feast days as well as significant religious figures and organizations Additionally some 160 sidebars provide examples and more detailed information as well as fun facts

Caring through the Funeral Gene Fowler, 2020-01-24 Caring through the Funeral is a guidebook to take pastors through the complete funeral process from the moment the call is received to the weeks following the funeral More than just a how to Caring through the Funeral uniquely addresses the funeral process from the perspective of pastoral ministry of pastoral caring throughout the time of mourning from the death through post funeral grieving Many times the funeral is the most momentous means of pastoral caring for the bereaved and often it is the only time that the church has an opportunity to care for the family and friends Gene Fowler explores what pastors go through at each stage of the funeral process Both descriptive and conceptual Fowler s practical advice solid pastoral and theological grounding and case illustrations take pastors and student pastors through many issues the language of loss the vocabulary ministers need for this caring ministry bereavement and grief pastoral care of family members pastoral care of non family members including groups within the church and community the funeral as worship service including a comparison of our Protestant liturgical books and the elements that comprise a Christian funeral practical issues of planning the service including sample services funeral service as means of caring for the bereaved and as a rite of passage and the interrelationship between funerals mourning and grief how funerals often launch mourners on a spiritual journey questions asked by the bereaved role of resurrection in pastoral care pastoral care after the funeral A Cheerful and Comfortable Faith Lauren F.

Winner,2010-01-01 A very satisfying book persuasive in showing how material culture and household devotion are central to the workings of lived Anglicanism in eighteenth century Virginia David D Hall Harvard Divinity School Servants of the Kingdom David Bos,2010 Minister of the Word shepherd and teacher the titles of Dutch pastors exude authority and prestige In the course of the nineteenth century however their social position was slowly undermined by the separation of church and state the emancipation of Catholics and dissenters and the rise of all sorts of secular shepherds and teachers This work of historical sociology analyzes the development of the profession of pastor in the Netherlands Reformed Church focusing on pastors changing relationships with the state the universities other professions and their own congregants It paints a surprising lively and often humorous picture of nineteenth century ecclesiastical and religious life and of the many areas of Dutch society and culture where pastors made their mark in particular the literary world Protestant Relics in Early America Jamie L.
