Fahrenheit 451 Part 1 Sample Student Responses

1. The title "Fahrenheit 451" is significant because it is the temperature at which paper catches fire and burns. This is a metaphor for the story's theme of censorship and the burning of books.

2. The story begins in a futuristic society where firemen are responsible for starting fires. This is a twist on the traditional role of firemen, who are usually responsible for putting out fires.

3. Fire is a central element in the story. It is used by the firemen to burn books and houses. It is also a symbol of rebellion and freedom.

4. The firemen are the main characters in the story. They are responsible for starting fires and maintaining the fire. They are also the ones who burn books.

5. Books are a central element in the story. They are the source of knowledge and freedom. They are also the reason why the firemen are so powerful.

6. The society is a dystopian one. It is a society where the government controls everything. It is a society where the individual has no freedom.

7. The individual is the only one who is free. He is the only one who is not controlled by the government. He is the only one who is not afraid of the firemen.

8. The government is the most powerful force in the story. It is the government that controls the firemen. It is the government that burns books.

9. The future is a dark one. It is a future where the government controls everything. It is a future where the individual has no freedom.

10. The past is a source of knowledge and freedom. It is the past that the individual wants to return to. It is the past that the firemen want to destroy.
