Quita's Daycare Center (The Cartel Publications Presents) Gina West,2011-04-15 Some daycare centers have your child's interest at heart Quita's Daycare center is not one of them Quita never pretended to run a professional center So when her license gets revoked after a spiteful parent complains to the Office of Child Care services because her bad son Lil Goose was kicked out of the center Quita feels relieved Now she can offer cheap prices and beat the legal competition in her neighborhood Out from up under the rules that O C C enforces she crams twenty kids in a center built for eight Her motto is Pay the vig or watch your own kid Although the center's conditions are unsavory she brags about fat pockets and fly gear But what happens when Cordon the son of Flex a well known drug dealer goes missing She has to answer to him and her life as well as the lives of her staff members is threatened Quita's DayScare Center introduces you to the worst parents in the world and their offspring You've never read a book like this before we guarantee it You'll think twice before you drop your kids off again At least we hope so

Contingent Kinship Kathryn A. Mariner,2019-04-30 Based on ethnographic fieldwork at a small Chicago adoption agency specializing in transracial adoption Contingent Kinship charts the entanglement of institutional structures and ideologies of family race and class to argue that adoption is powerfully implicated in the question of who can have a future in the twenty first century United States With a unique focus on the role that social workers and other professionals play in mediating relationships between expectant mothers and prospective adopters Kathryn A Mariner develops the concept of intimate speculation a complex assemblage of investment observation and anticipation that shapes the adoption process into an elaborate mechanism for creating dissolving and exchanging imagined futures Shifting the emphasis from adoption's outcome to its conditions of possibility this insightful ethnography places the practice of domestic adoption within a temporal economic and affective framework in order to interrogate the social inequality and power dynamics that render adoption and the families it produces possible Papers and Addresses William Henry Welch,1920

Fake Science Austin Ruse,2017-07-17 If you listen to any political argument you're eventually bound to hear something like The science is settled on this Or Just look at the statistics Or There have been studies that say You'd think we were living in the golden age of science and reason But the truth is far more sinister says Austin Ruse We're actually living in the age of the low information voter easily misled by all too convincing false statistics and studies In Fake Science Ruse debunks so called facts used to advance political causes one after the other revealing how poorly they stand up to actual science
