BOOK JACKET Giving an Academic Presentation in English Adrian Wallwork, 2022-06-23. This book is for university students with at least a mid intermediate level of English. It can be used as part of an English for Academic Purposes (EAP) course either alone or with the companion volume Writing an Academic Paper in English. The chapters are independent so that EAP teachers and students can choose those sections that best fit their needs. This means that a course could range from a minimum of 20 hours up to 60 hours or more. There is an introductory chapter that includes what role academics play in today's world where success is not just measured in terms of paper output and presentations at conferences but also in involvement in interdisciplinary projects and supporting society at large. Each chapter covers either a particular skill (e.g. preparing a script, pronunciation, visuals, how to begin and end a presentation) or the particular purpose of a specific moment in a presentation. For example, the final slide is designed not just to conclude and thank the audience but is an opportunity to reach out for collaborations and assistance. The aims of each part of a presentation are also highlighted by comparisons with non academic situations where similar skills are required. The course is highly practical with screenshots from real presentations given by PhD students. It is also designed to be fun to use. Other books in the series: Writing an Academic Paper in English, Essential English Grammar and Communication Strategies. Adrian Wallwork is the author of more than 40 ELT and EAP textbooks. He has trained several thousand PhD students and researchers from around 50 countries to write research papers and give presentations. He is also the co founder of e4ac.com, an editing agency for non native English speaking researchers.
