The Silver Star Jeannette Walls, 2013 Two motherless sisters Bean and Liz are shuttled to Virginia where their Uncle Tinsley lives in the decaying mansion that's been in their family for generations. When school starts in the fall, Bean easily adjusts and makes friends, and Liz becomes increasingly withdrawn. Then something happens to Liz, and Bean is left to challenge the injustice of the adult world. Curriculum and the Life Erratic Leslie B.

Nissen, 2013-10-30 Curriculum and the Life Erratic The Geographic Cure lays bare the untold damage done to children who are forced to endure the toxic combination of fermented parenting as author Leslie Nissen has termed it, and frequent family moves at the hands of alcoholic parents who perpetually seek the elusive Geographic Cure. While such parents deceive themselves that in the next new place sobriety will prevail, their children know better. Alcoholics who chronically uproot their families for a fresh start usually carry along every reason to drink. For the school-age children of such cure-seeking alcoholics, the torment of life with a volatile unpredictable and chronically intoxicated parent is intensified by the anguish of being the new kid who changes schools at the whim of the parent. Highly mobile children bearing an alarmingly long list of prior schools may be part of a group which Nissen calls Geographic Cure Children whose chances of finding help are nearly non-existent despite their acute need for care. The dilemma of this unique subset of Children of Alcoholics is examined via autobiographical psychoanalytic and fictional lenses. Nissen also recounts her own urge to hit the road when diagnosed with cancer and explores the Geographic Cure writ large, observing how the current testing frenzy and clamor for cures for low test scores dominate educational policy. Could teachers panic about accountability cause them to resent new students who appear at their classroom doors mid-year? Is education encumbered because at the hands of policy makers educators are working the Life Erratic? The Silver Star Jeannette Walls, 2013-06-06

For readers who loved The Glass Castle, comes a stunning heartbreaking novel about an intrepid girl who challenges the injustice of the adult world. It is 1970. Bean Holladay is twelve, and her sister Liz is fifteen, when their mother, a woman who flees every place she's ever lived, at the first sign of trouble takes off to find herself. She leaves the girls enough money for food to last a month or two, but it's not long before Bean and Liz board a bus from California to Virginia where their widowed Uncle Tinsley lives in the decaying mansion that has been in the family for generations. Once they've arrived, money is tight, so Liz and Bean start working for Jerry Maddox, foreman of the mill in town, a big man who bullies workers, tenants, and his wife. Bean adores her whip-smart older sister, inventor of word games, reader of Edgar Allan Poe, non-conformist. But when school starts in the autumn, it is Bean who easily adjusts and makes friends, and Liz who becomes increasingly withdrawn. And then something happens between Liz and Maddox. Tragic and comic at the same time, an outrageous story, one that will break your heart. Sunday Independent. There isn't a shred of self-pity in this deeply compassionate book. Marie Claire. Has immense power and readability. What it does with aplomb is to track the birth of a nation, the conjuring of modern America from a scorched, dusty wasteland. The Times on Half Broke Horses. Outstanding Books for the College Bound Angela Carstensen, 2011-05-27 More than simply a vital collection development tool, this book can help librarians help young adults grow into the kind of independent readers and thinkers who will flourish at college
