Exemplars of Assessment in Higher Education Jane Marie Souza, Tara A. Rose, 2023-07-03 Co published with While assessment may feel to constituents like an activity of accountability simply for accreditors it is most appropriate to approach assessment as an activity of accountability for students Assessment results that improve institutional effectiveness heighten student learning and better align resources serve to make institutions stronger for the benefit of their students and those results also serve the institution or program well during the holistic evaluation required through accreditation from the foreword by Heather Perfetti President of the Middle States Commission on Higher Education Colleges and universities struggle to understand precisely what is being asked for by accreditors and this book answers that question by sharing examples of success reported by schools specifically recommended by accreditors This compendium gathers examples of assessment practice in twenty four higher education institutions twenty three in the U S and one in Australia All institutions represented in this book were suggested by their accreditor as having an effective assessment approach in one or more of the following assessment focused areas assessment in the disciplines co curricular course program institutional assessment equity and inclusion general education online learning program review scholarship of teaching and learning student learning or technology These examples recommended by accrediting agencies makes this a unique contribution to the assessment literature The book is organized in four parts Part One is focused on student learning and assessment and includes ten chapters The primary focus for Part Two is student learning assessment from a disciplinary perspective and includes four chapters Part Three has a faculty engagement and assessment focus and Part Four includes four chapters on institutional effectiveness and assessment with a focus on strategic planning This book is a publication of the Association for the Assessment of Learning in Higher Education AALHE an organization of practitioners interested in using effective assessment practice to document and improve student learning Resources in Education ,1998 Annual Report South Africa. Department of Basic Education,2016 Handbook of Research on Writing Charles Bazerman,2009-03-04 The Handbook of Research on Writing ventures to sum up inquiry over the last few decades on what we know about writing and the many ways we know it How do people write How do they learn to write and develop as writers Under what conditions and for what purposes do people write What resources and technologies do we use to write How did our current forms and practices of writing emerge within social history What impacts has writing had on society and the individual What does it mean to be and to learn to be an active participant in contemporary systems of meaning This cornerstone volume advances the field by aggregating the broad ranging interdisciplinary multidimensional strands of writing research and bringing them together into a common intellectual space Endeavoring to synthesize what has been learned about writing in all nations in recent decades it reflects a wide scope of international research activity with attention to writing at all levels of schooling and in all life situations Chapter authors all eminent researchers come from disciplines as diverse as anthropology archeology typography communication studies linguistics journalism sociology rhetoric composition law medicine education history and literacy studies The Handbook's 37 chapters are organized in five sections The History of Writing Writing in Society Writing in Schooling Writing and the Individual Writing as Text This volume in summing up what is known about writing deepens our experience and appreciation of writing in ways that will make teachers better at teaching writing and all of its readers better as individual writers It will be interesting and useful to scholars and researchers of writing to anyone who teaches writing in any context at any level and to all those who are just curious about writing

Communication in Accounting Education
Richard M.S. Wilson, F. Elizabeth Gray, Lynn Hamilton, 2016-04-14 Accounting often described as the language of business requires a diverse set of written listening and oral communication skills if those who practise it are to be effective Given the pace of change relating to for example the evolution of international accounting standards and the demands for greater transparency accountants must be clear responsive and audience focussed communicators Employers of accountants consistently comment on the need for their new graduate recruits and trainees to have strong written oral and interpersonal communication skills In this light accounting educators face the challenge of designing and delivering programmes that reflect professional expectations on the part of employers and clients and educating students on how to make informed communication choices in order to achieve desired results and to build good working relationships The chapters in this book deal with such topics as accounting students perceptions of oral communication skills competence based writing skills and the development of listening skills This book was originally published as Accounting Education an international journal

Bold Ventures - Volume 1 S. Raizen, E.D. Britton, 2007-05-08 This book based on detailed studies of eight innovations in mathematics and science education has many insights to offer on current school reform Since each innovation studied has taken its own unique approach the set as a whole spans the spectrum from curriculum development to systemic reform from concentrating on particular school populations to addressing all of K 12 education Yet these reform projects share a common context a world view on what matters in science and mathematics for students of the 1990s and beyond convictions about what constitutes effective instruction and some notions about how school change can be brought about These commonalities are drawn out in the book and illustrated with examples from the individual case studies that are reported in full in Bold Ventures Volumes 2 and 3 The eight innovations all of them projects that are well known at least by name to U S audiences are briefly described in chapter 1 Each was the subject of an in depth three year case study The research teams analyzed many documents attended numerous project meetings visited multiple sites conducted dozens of individual interviews The team leaders having spent much time with mathematics or science education over long careers looked at these reform projects through several lenses the teams sifted through the mountains of data they had collected in order to tell the story of each project in rich detail
