Jsc Syllabus 2015:

International Practices to Promote Budget Literacy Harika Masud, Helene Pfeil, Sanjay Agarwal, Alfredo Gonzalez Briseno, 2017-08-09 Budget literacy is defined as the ability to read decipher and understand public budgets to enable and enhance meaningful citizen participation in the budget process. It is comprised of two main parts: i) a technical understanding of public budgets including familiarity with government spending, tax rates and public debt, and ii) the ability to engage in the budget process comprising of practical knowledge on day to day issues as well as an elementary understanding of the economic, social and political implications of budget policies, the stakeholders involved and when and how to provide inputs during the annual budget cycle. Given that no international standards or guidelines have been established for budget literacy education to date, this book seeks to address this gap by taking stock of illustrative initiatives promoting budget literacy for youth in selected countries. The underlying presumption is that when supply side actors in the budget process (governments) simplify and disseminate budget information for demand side actors (citizens), this information will then be used by citizens to provide feedback on the budget. However, since citizens are often insufficiently informed about public budgets to constructively participate in budget processes, one way to empower them and to remedy the problem of budget illiteracy is to provide budget literacy education in schools to youth, helping them evolve into civic minded adults with the essential knowledge needed for analyzing their government's fiscal policy objectives and measures and the confidence and sense of social responsibility to participate in the oversight of public resources. This book elaborates on approaches, learning outcomes, pedagogical strategies and assessment approaches for budget literacy education and presents lessons that are relevant for the development, improvement or scaling up of budget literacy initiatives.

Leadership Moments from NASA Dr. Dave Williams, Elizabeth Howell, PhD, 2021-07-06 The NASA way: lessons on leadership, teamwork and corporate culture. How does NASA take on seemingly insurmountable challenges, recover from tragedy and continue to attract the best and brightest talent? Space exploration is as much a story of leadership and teamwork as it is a story of exploration and discovery. Leadership Moments from NASA delves into the culture of the famed organization and examines the leadership styles and insights of NASA senior executives spanning five decades of human spaceflight to share the lessons they learned from critical moments. How did they prioritize? How did they resolve differences? How did they decide what to do when no one had done it before? How did they build highly competent teams? How did they build organizational resilience? How did they fight complacency and rebuild a culture of safety and innovation? Through the use of NASA oral histories and interviews, this book shows how NASA recovered from tragedy and adversity and how it developed a culture of competency that continues to attract the best and brightest.

Mentoring demonstrably increases the retention of undergraduate and graduate students and is moreover invaluable in shaping and nurturing academic careers With the increasing diversification of the student body and of faculty ranks there is a clear need for culturally responsive mentoring across these dimensions Recognizing the low priority that academia has generally given to extending the practice of mentoring let alone providing mentoring for Black indigenous and people of color BIPOC and first generation students this book offers a proven and holistic model of mentoring practice developed in the field of psychology that not only helps mentees navigate their studies and the academy but provides them with an understanding of the systemic and racist barriers they will encounter validates their cultural roots and contributions and attends to their personal development Further recognizing the demands that mentoring places on already busy faculty the model addresses ways of distributing the work inviting White and BIPOC faculty to participate developing mentees capacities to mentor those that follow them building a network of mentoring across generations and adopting group mentoring Intentionally planned and implemented the model becomes self perpetuating building an intergenerational cadre of mentors who can meet the growing and continuing needs of the BIPOC community Opening with a review of the salient research on effective mentoring and chapters that offer minority students views on what has worked for them as well as reflections by faculty mentors the core of the book describes the Freedom Train model developed by the godfather of Black psychology Dr Joseph White setting out the principles and processes that inform the Multiracial Multiethnic Multicultural M3 Mentoring Model that evolved from it and offers an example of group mentoring While addressed principally to faculty interested in undertaking mentoring and supporting minoritized students and faculty the book also addresses Deans and Chairs and how they can create Freedom Train communities and networks by changing the cultural climate of their institutions providing support and modifying faculty evaluations and rewards that will in turn contribute to student retention as well as creative and productive scholarship and research This is a timely and inspiring book for anyone in the academy concerned with the success of BIPOC students and invigorating their department s or school s scholarship
