Homefront Cooking Tracey Enerson Wood, Mary Elizabeth Riffle, Carol Van Drie, 2018-05-08 An intersection of three inseparable features of military life stories family and food Food brings families and friends together providing not only nourishment for our bodies but also the glue that holds our families and society together It is around the dinner table that we interact and important announcements are made it was chow time in the foxholes when soldiers came to know each other forming bonds so strong they would risk their own lives for one another Remembering the smells and tastes of home support many in difficult times those memories captured here in photographs and recipes Home Front Cooking brings you a collection of treasured family recipes and photographs from military service members past and present and their loved ones Recipes are accompanied by brief stories and memories related to the recipe military service and or lifestyle The stories range from anecdotes passed down from great great grandfathers who served in the American Civil War to tales of terrified family members caught in a foreign country when John F Kennedy was shot to the stories of service members serving in Afghanistan and Iraq today Many are heartwarming some are humorous most are bittersweet All are written with a sense of pride and passion and offer a glimpse of a lifestyle that is as unique as it is challenging All authors profits will be donated to a charitable organization in support of veterans

Theatre & War Nandita Dinesh, 2019-07-05 In Theatre she describes various projects that she has undertaken on the ground she theorizes strategies that might be useful to other practitioner researchers who are involved in similar work In this sequel of sorts Dinesh chooses to return to the same themes of theatre of war But this time she intentionally crafts her notes from afar From somewhere outside the field From somewhere outside the practice And yet a somewhere that is consumed by the field And the practice Through writing that seeks to do through writing that seeks to perform Dinesh use different voices in this book Voices that come from more traditional archival sources which are then re conceptualized as drama Voices that come from sources that occupy the space between archived and lived experience which are then shaped into creative vignettes Voices that come from Dinesh s repertoire her own lived experiences that are then crafted as flash fiction about past present future collaborators By weaving together variously positioned experiences and voices through creative re interpretations Theatre it is also a book that could be performed
