At Manhattan Adventist Hospital, our dedicated medical expense financial assistance program lets us reach more people, even those who may not qualify for existing available aid. We're hiring certified nursing assistants that thrive at the bedside, functioning as key points of contact for patients and their families.

As a hospital CNA with us, you'll partner with nurses and other healthcare providers in rounding out the Manhattan Adventist patient care experience. Your skills and compassion will help keep our fast-paced hospital environment running smoothly. This is a full-time role with work hours assigned in shifts, and you must be able to lift 100 lbs. frequently.

About the company

We emphasize skills development and education above all else, so every staff member is encouraged to request placements that will further their career goals. We firmly believe in empowering our care providers and equipping them with the abilities they need to lead patients toward better health outcomes.

A typical shift for CNAs working with us begins with receiving assignments and updates from our LPNs in the form of a nursing report; after that, you'll run the usual routine of monitoring and caring for patients. Your presence helps nurses, doctors, and patients as you work closely with patients all day, meaning that you'll catch any irregularities or complications early on.
