The End of the Trail Robert Ervin Howard, 2005 I was born in the little ex cowtown of Peaster Texas Robert E Howard wrote to a friend and the first story he ever published in 1922 was a Western sketch Although he went on to write hundreds of fantasy tales set in Conan s Hyborian kingdoms Kull s ancient Atlantis and Solomon Kane s darkest Africa his heart always remained in the West In 1929 he began publishing Western tales but they were unlike any the genre had ever seen they didn t have happy endings or perfect heroes They were grimmer more action packed even cataclysmically violent Howard was fascinated by outlaws and gunmen especially those who crossed over to become lawmen and he knew and interviewed many old timers old law officers trail drivers cattlemen buffalo hunters and pioneers The twelve stories collected here show a West stripped down to essentials where internalized codes of personal honor loyalty and courage matter more than laws progress or civilization Also included are four articles suggestive of his wide ranging interests from Billy the Kid to the eerie and unexplained happenings on the frontier To me the annals of the land pulse with blood and life Howard wrote and his Western stories are full of memorable characters heart pounding action and the distinctive prose generations of fans have come to know and expect and appreciate
