Emphasizing the role that vivid personalities including engineers John Laing Weller and Alex Grant as well as contractors and labourers played in the construction of the canal. Roberta Styran and Robert Taylor use archival sources, government documents, newspapers, maps and original plans to describe a saga of technological, financial, geographical and social obstacles met and overcome in an accomplishment akin to the building of the Canadian Pacific Railway. A story of Canadian skill, courage, vision and hardship. This Colossal Project details the twenty year excavation of the giant channel and the creation of huge concrete locks amidst war, the Great Depression, political change and labour unrest. Thomas King Eva Gruber, 2012. Thomas King is one of North America's foremost Native writers, best known for his novels including Green Grass Running Water for the Dreadful Water mysteries and for collections of short stories such as One Good Story That One and A Short History of Indians in Canada. But King is also a poet, a literary and cultural critic and a noted filmmaker, photographer and scriptwriter and performer for radio. His career and oeuvre have been validated by literary awards and by the inclusion of his writing in college and university curricula. Critical responses to King's work have been abundant, yet most of this criticism consists of journal articles and to date only one book-length study of his work exists. Thomas King: Works and Impact fills this gap by providing an up-to-date comprehensive overview of all major aspects of King's oeuvre as well as its reception and influence. It brings together expert scholars to discuss King's role in and impact on Native literature and its processes of canonization and to offer in-depth analyses of his multifaceted body of work. The volume will be of interest to students and scholars of literature, English and Native American studies and to King aficionados. Canadian Literature Faye Hammill, 2007-09-13. Each chapter combines case studies of five key texts with a broad discussion of concepts and approaches including postcolonial and postmodern reading strategies and theories of space, place and desire. Authors chosen for close analysis include Margaret Atwood, Michael Ondaatje, Alice Munro, Leonard Cohen, Thomas King and Carol Shields.
