Comparing Tort and Crime Matthew Dyson, 2015-07-02 The fields of tort and crime have much in common in practice particularly in how they both try to respond to wrongs and regulate future behaviour Despite this commonality in fact fascinating difficulties have hitherto not been resolved about how legal systems co ordinate or leave wild the border between tort and crime What is the purpose of tort law and criminal law and how do you tell the difference between them Do criminal lawyers and civil lawyers reason and argue in the same way Are the rules on capacity consent fault causation secondary liability or defences the same in tort as in crime How do the rules of procedure operate for each area Are there points of overlap When how and why do tort and crime interact This volume systematically answers these and other questions for eight legal systems England France Germany Sweden Spain Scotland the Netherlands and Australia

The Protection of Foreign Investments in Mongolia Bajar Scharaw, 2017-11-07 This book analyses the adequacy of Mongolia s legal system for foreign investment protection by conducting a multi level assessment of international investment treaties domestic legislation of the host State and investor State contracts from an international comparative perspective The investigation distinguishes between three legal dimensions each of which offers both substantive legal guarantees for the protection of investments in the host State and provisions for the settlement of investment disputes by arbitration In the first dimension of Public International Law PIL

Mongolia is bound by international investment treaties which offer investors an international law setting. In the second dimension a special domestic investment law defines the domestic framework for the establishment, promotion and protection of investments but also for the conclusion of investor State contracts. These contracts in turn open a third legal dimension which represents a cross section through the PIL and domestic law dimensions of investment protection. Following the development of a multi level system with legal dimensions that are not isolated but rather interrelated and mutually reinforcing the book examines whether Mongolia's international investment treaties and domestic investment law reflect globally shared international and domestic standards of treatment and protection of foreign investments. Lastly the author inquires whether the domestic laws applicable to investor State contracts in Mongolia allow investors and the Mongolian Government to agree on protective terms according to the not uncontroversial standards of international contract practice.

"The" Athenaeum, 1895 Ashes and Sparks Stephen Sedley, 2011-02-24 As a practising barrister the Rt Hon Lord Justice Sedley wrote widely on legal and non legal matters and continued to do so after becoming a judge in 1992. This anthology contains classic articles, previously unpublished essays and lecture transcripts. To each he has added reflections on what has transpired since or an explanation of the British legal and political context that originally prompted it. Covering the history, engineering and architecture of the justice system, their common theme relates to the author's experiences as a barrister and judge, most notably in relation to the constitutional changes which have emerged in the last twenty years in the United Kingdom. British Medical Journal, 1919 Commonwealth Universities Yearbook, 1927 Athenæum and
