Empire In The New Testament McMaster New Testament Studies Series:

Empire in the New Testament Stanley E. Porter, Cynthia Long Westfall, 2011-01-01 How does a Christian render unto Caesar what is Caesar's and unto God what is God's This book is the result of the Bingham Colloquium of 2007 that brought scholars from across North America to examine the New Testament's response to the empires of God and Caesar Two chapters lay the foundation for that response in the Old Testament's concept of empire and six others address the response to the notion of empire both human and divine in the various authors of the New Testament A final chapter investigates how the church fathers regarded the matter The essays display various methods and positions together however they offer a representative sample of the current state of study of the notion of empire in the New Testament An Introduction to Empire in the New Testament Adam Winn, 2016-06-24 Explore how empire is a crucial foreground for reading and interpreting the New Testament In the last three decades significant attention has been given to the way in which New Testament texts engage and respond to the imperial world in which they were written The purpose of the present volume is to introduce students and non specialists to the growing subfield of New Testament studies known as empire studies Contributors seek to make readers aware of the significant work that has already been produced while also pointing them to new ways in which this field is moving forward The contributors are Bruce W Longenecker Richard A Horsley Warren Carter Adam Winn Eric D Barreto Beth M Sheppard Neil Elliot James R Harrison Harry O Maier Deborah Krause Jason A Whitlark Matthew R Hauge Kelly D Liebengood and Davina C Lopez Features Essays from a diverse group of interpreters who at times have differing presuppositions methods and concerns Articles introduce students and non specialists to the Roman imperial realities regularly encountered by first and second century Christians Contributions explore the strategies employed by early Christians to respond to the Roman empire New Testament Christological Hymns Matthew E. Gordley, 2018-08-07 We know that the earliest Christians sang hymns But are some of these early Christian hymns preserved for us in the New Testament Matthew Gordley takes a new look at didactic hymns in the Greco Roman and Jewish world of the early church considering how they might function in the New Testament and what they could tell us about early Christian worship The New Testament in the Graeco-Roman World Marius Nel, Jan G. van der Watt, Fika J. van Rensburg, 2015 Born in Pretoria South Africa Abraham Abe J Malherbe 1930-2012 taught Theology of New Testament and Early Christianity at Abilene Christian University and was Buckingham Professor of New Testament Criticism and Literature Emeritus at Yale Divinity School A member of The Society of Biblical Literature for over 50 years Abe was a highly productive scholar who made major contributions in several areas This festschrift in honor of Prof Abe Malherbe is the product of South African and international scholars honoring the memory of a great New Testament scholar Series Theology in Africa Vol 4 Subject Religious Studies Christianity The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies Kirsteen Kim, Knud Jørgensen, Alison Fitchett-Climenhaga, 2022-04-18 The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies represents more than a century of scholarship related to the theology history and methodology of the propagation of Christian faith and the engagement of Christians with cultures religions and societies worldwide It contains more than 40 articles by experts from different disciplinary and ecclesial perspectives who are from all continents It not only offers a broad overview of key approaches and issues in mission studies but it also highlights current trends and suggests future developments The Handbook builds on renewed interest in mission studies this century generated by recent key statements on mission from ecumenical evangelical Catholic and Orthodox sources and by a spate of academic works on the topic Western church leaders now apply insights from foreign missions such as inculturation liberation interfaith work and power encounter to today s multicultural societies Meanwhile there are new initiatives in mission from the Majority World where most Christians live so that sending is not only from the west to the rest but from everywhere to everywhere Therefore this volume aims to reflect the voices of the receivers of mission as well as its protagonists and to raise awareness of new movements In a time of growing recognition of religions more generally this work examines and theorizes the missional dimensions of the world s largest religion its agendas growth outreach role in public life effect on cultures relevance for development and its approaches to other communities

The Arts and the Bible Stanley E. Porter, Wendy J. Porter, 2024-01-04 Throughout its history the Christian church has had a troubled relationship with the arts whether literature poetry music visual arts or other forms of artistic expression This volume is not designed to resolve the issues but it is designed to present a number of different statements about various dimensions of the arts in their relationship to the Bible The Bible is the document that stands behind the Christian church as an inspiration to it and to its arts As a result we have divided this volume into six parts perspectives on the arts culture and art visual enactments contemporary interpretations music and the Bible and literature Many of the issues that the history of the interaction of the arts and the Bible within the Christian church has uncovered are insightfully and artfully addressed by this book The wide range of contributors runs the gamut from practicing artists of various media to scholars within varied academic fields

James in Postcolonial Perspective K. Jason Coker, 2015-08-01 James confronts the exploitive wealthy it also opposes Pauline hybridity K Jason Coker argues that postcolonial perspectives allow us to understand how these themes converge in the letter James opposes the exploitation of the Roman Empire and a peculiar Pauline form of hybridity that compromises with it refutes Roman cultural practices such as the patronage system and economic practices that threaten the identity of the letter s recipients and condemns those who would transgress the boundaries between purity and impurity God and world

Judges Mark J. Boda, Mary Conway, 2022-12-06 Designed for the pastor and Bible teacher the Zondervan Exegetical Commentary on the Old Testament features today s top Old Testament scholars and brings together commentary features rarely gathered together in one volume With careful discourse analysis and interpretation of the Hebrew text the authors trace the flow of argument in each Old Testament book showing that how a biblical author says something is just as important as what they say Commentary on each passage follows a clear structure to help readers grasp the flow and meaning of the text The Main Idea of the Passage A one or two sentence summary of the key ideas the biblical author seeks to communicate Literary Context A brief discussion of the relationship of the specific text to the book as a whole and to its place within the broader argument Translation and Exegetical Outline Commentators provide their own translations of each text formatted to highlight its discourse structure and accompanied by a coherent outline that reflects the flow and argument of the text Structure and Literary Form An overview of the literary structure and rhetorical style adopted by the biblical author highlighting how these features contribute to the communication of the main idea of the passage Explanation of the Text A detailed commentary on the passage paying particular attention to how the biblical authors select and arrange their materials and how they work with words phrases and syntax to communicate their messages Canonical and Practical Significance The commentary on each unit will conclude by building bridges between the world of the biblical author and other biblical authors and with reflections on the contribution made by this unit to the development of broader issues in biblical theology particularly on how later Old Testament and New Testament authors have adapted and reused the motifs in question The discussion also includes brief reflections on the significance of the message of the passage for readers today The Zondervan Exegetical Commentary on the Old Testament series is the go to resource for pastors and Bible teachers looking for deep but accessible study that equips them to connect the needs of Christians today with the biblical text

Transcending Mission Michael W Stroope, 2017-03-16 Today the language of mission is in disarray Where do the language and idea of mission come from Do they truly have precedence in the early centuries of the church Michael Stroope investigates these questions and shows how the language of mission is a modern phenomenon that shaped a grand narrative of mission He then offers a way forward Prologue Acknowledgements Introduction the enigma of mission Part 1 Justifying mission 1 Partisans and apologists 2 Reading Scripture as mission 3 Presenting history as mission 4 Rhetoric and trope Part 2 Innovating mission 5 Holy conquest 6 Latin occupation 7 Mission vow 8 Ignatian mission Part 3 Revising mission 9 Protestant reception 10 Missionary problems Epilogue towards pilgrim witness Works cited Resisting Empire Jason A. Whitlark, 2014-07-31 This book offers a fresh reading about the purpose for which Hebrews was written In this book Whitlark argues that Hebrews engages both the negative pressures persecution and positive attractions honor prosperity of its audience s Roman imperial context Consequently the audience of Hebrews appears to be in danger of defecting to the pagan imperial context Due to the imperial nature of these pressures Hebrews obliquely critiques the imperial script according to the rhetorical expectations in the first century Mediterranean world namely through the use of figured speech This critique is the primary focus of Whitlark s project Whitlark examines Hebrews s figured response to the imperial hopes boasted by Rome along with Rome s claim to eternal rule to the power of life and death and to be led by the true victorious ruler Whitlark also makes a case for discerning Hebrews s response to the challenges of Flavian triumph Whitlark concludes his study by suggesting that Hebrews functions much like Revelation that is to resist the draw of the Christians Roman imperial context This is done in part by providing a covert opposition to Roman imperial discourse He also offers evaluation of relapse theories for Hebrews of Hebrews s place among early Christian martyrdom and of the nature of the resistance that Hebrews promotes

Linguistics and the Bible Stanley E. Porter, Christopher D. Land, Francis G. H. Pang, 2019-07-12 In 2016 the Centre for Biblical Linguistics Translation and Exegesis CBLTE a research center located at McMaster Divinity College hosted the annual Bingham Colloquium Scholars from around North America were invited to participate in a collegial and collaborative dialogue on what is currently happening or could happen at the intersection of linguistics and biblical studies particularly in regards to the linguistic study of biblical languages their translation and the way that linguistic methods can contribute to the interpretation of the biblical texts This volume of essays publishes many of the presentations that took place at the Colloquium

The Death of the Messiah and the Birth of the New Covenant Michael J. Gorman, 2014-06-27 In this groundbreaking book Michael Gorman asks why there is no theory or model of the atonement called the new covenant model since this understanding of the atonement is likely the earliest in the Christian tradition going back to Jesus himself Gorman argues that most models of the atonement over emphasize the penultimate purposes of Jesus death and the mechanics of the atonement rather than its ultimate purpose to create a transformed Spirit filled people of God The New Testament s various atonement metaphors are part of a remarkably coherent picture of Jesus death as that which brings about the new covenant and thus the new community promised by the prophets which is also the covenant of peace Gorman therefore proposes a new model of the atonement that is really not new at all the new covenant model He argues that this is not merely an ancient model in need of rediscovery but also a more comprehensive integrated participatory communal and missional model than any of the major models in the tradition Life in this new covenant Gorman argues is a life of communal and individual participation in Jesus faithful loving peacemaking death Written for both academics and church leaders this book will challenge all who read it to re think and re articulate the meaning of Christ s death for us

Empire and Gender in LXX Esther Meredith J. Stone, 2018-11-09 A new perspective on essential aspects of Esther s plot and characters for students and scholars Empire and Gender in LXX Esther foregrounds and highlights empire as the central lens in this provocative new reading of Esther This book provides a unique synchronic reading of LXX Esther with the Additions allowing the presence and negotiation of imperial power to be further illuminated throughout the story s plot Stone explores and demonstrates how performances of gender are inextricably intertwined with the exertion and negotiation of imperial power portrayed in LXX Esther and offers examples of connections to the range of imperial power experienced by Jewish people during the late Second Temple period Features An exploration of the tenets and methodology of imperial critical approaches Focused attention to the final form of LXX Esther Construction of early audiences for LXX Esther in first century BCE Ptolemaic Alexandria and Hasmonean Judea

Why?... How Long? LeAnn Snow Flesher, Carol J. Dempsey OP, Mark J. Boda, 2014-04-24 This volume is born out of two years of academic presentations on laments in the Biblical Hebrew Poetry

Section at the Society of Biblical Literature 2006 2007 The topics of these papers are gathered around the theme of voice The two parts to this volume 1 provide fresh readings of familiar texts as they are read through the lens of lamentation and 2 deepen our understanding of Israel and God as lamenter and lamentee In the second section the focus on topics such as Israel's unbelieving faith in the strong accusations against the God on whom they have complete reliance and trust the unrighteous lamenter and God's acceptance and rejection of the people's lament deepens our understanding of Israel's culture and practice of lamentation The final essay notes how the expression of despair is in tension with the poetic devices that contain it

The Apostle Paul Stanley E. Porter, 2016-09-23 In this comprehensive introduction to the apostle Paul Stanley Porter devotes serious consideration both to the background and major contours of Paul's thought and to the unique contributions of each of his letters Porter begins by introducing the Pauline tradition and outlining the basics of Paul's life the chronology of his ministry and his several imprisonments Porter then discusses the background to Paul's thought examines some of the major themes of his writings and treats issues concerning the Pauline epistles such as pseudonymity and canon Finally Porter delves into all thirteen of Paul's letters individually placing them within their historical contexts and examining critical issues relating to the content and interpretation of each letter The result is a thorough balanced treatment of one of the most important figures in Christianity

Ephesians and Empire Justin Winzenburg, 2022-07-19 While recent publications have explored the relationship between New Testament texts and early Roman imperial ideology Ephesians has been underanalyzed in these conversations In this study Justin Winzenburg provides an original contribution to the field by assessing how matters of the disputed authorship audience and date of Ephesians have varied consequences for the imperial critical status of the epistle Previously underexplored elements of the Roman context of Ephesians with a focus on maiestas treason charges imperial cults and Roman imperial eschatology are examined in light of the two major theories of the date of the epistle The author concludes that while there are limitations to an imperial critical reading of the epistle some of the epistle's speech acts can be understood as subversive of Roman imperial ideology

Text, Image, and Christians in the Graeco-Roman World Aliou Cissé Niang, Carolyn Osiek, 2011-11-03 Twenty four scholars join their efforts to congratulate David Lee Balch for a long career of dedication to scholarship and teaching Topics range from the life of early Christian house churches to the kinds of challenges that early Christians needed to negotiate in their artistic and literary worlds as they established their own identity Contributors Edward Adams Frederick E Brenk Warren Carter John R Clarke Everett Ferguson John T Fitzgerald Richard A Freund Ronald F Hock Robin M Jensen Davina C Lopez Margaret Y MacDonald Abraham J Malherbe Aliou Cisse Niang Peter Oakes Todd Penner Leo G Perdue Turid Karlsen Seim Dennis E Smith Yancy W Smith Stephen V Sprinkle Hal Taussig Oliver Larry Yarbrough

Narrative Hermeneutics, History, and Rhetoric, 2024-12-23 David P Moessner has pioneered the study of early Christian narrative both through the investigation of the principles and methods of good storytelling outlined by ancient authors and through the demonstration that Christians especially the author of Luke Acts used these principles and methods in crafting their own stories The contributors to this volume recognize Moessner s enormously valuable research and warm collegiality with twenty one essays on narrative hermeneutics characterization genre intertextuality and reception history Several focus fittingly on Luke and Acts while others press the implications of Moessner s work for comprehension of the wider world of Jewish Christian and Greco Roman storytelling

The Church, Then and Now Stanley E. Porter, Cynthia Long Westfall, 2012-10-26 The church is one of the most intriguing and significant institutions on earth Because its essence and character are so widely misunderstood this is a timely book The church is not a mere human institution though it is made up of human beings in community Its roles and responsibilities are momentous but all the elements of its organization came about as the church developed and attempted to fulfill its divine mandate not as forms given at its founding These papers from a Bingham Colloquium at McMaster Divinity College treat the church then in studies of the church in the various parts of the New Testament canon followed by a historical study of the church under attack in places where it did not survive The latter part of the book contains essays by several church practitioners from now who discuss their insights about and experiences with postmodern society home churches megachurches and the missional church Such a combination of biblical theology history and practice makes this a valuable book for scholars and practitioners in fact for all thinking members of the church founded by Jesus Christ

Exploring the New Testament in Asia Samson L. Uytanlet, Bennet Lawrence, 2024-08-31 There is a growing recognition that God s design is for us to read Scripture alongside the whole church in all of its cultural and linguistic diversity Exploring the New Testament in Asia is a textbook for students and scholars of the New Testament to help the church hear and see the good news of Jesus anew This collection of essays offers theological reflections on New Testament themes from Asian perspectives while addressing contextual issues in light of the New Testament Touching on topics such as salvation holiness poverty ethnic tensions reconciliation honoring elders persecution and hospitality the scholars in this book demonstrate the importance of a varied contemporary context for understanding the New Testament The result is a theological contribution that is both contextually relevant and biblically faithful
