Multicultural Andragogy for Transformative Learning Peltz, David P., Clemons, Anthony C., 2018-07-06 As individuals progress through each stage of life they continue to learn and grow intellectually However what may be a conducive learning environment for a child may not be as effective for an adult creating a need to understand how to aid adults in being successful learners in their later life

Multicultural Andragogy for Transformative Learning provides a diverse collection of positions related to adult learning. The book touches on a variety of topics including autonomous learning as a transformative experience, mixing cultures through intercultural methodology and integrating cultural perspectives into organizational learning. As a publication with a focus on andragogy, this proves a useful resource for academicians, higher education administrators and educators who teach both traditional and non traditional students in higher education.

Contemporary Perspectives on English as a Medium of Instruction Hayriye Kayi-Aydar, Laura Mahalingappa, 2024-03-01 English Medium Instruction (EMI) is the use of English to teach academic content in countries where English is not the first language. There continues to be a rapid growth in EMI around the globe and there is often official government support for EMI programs or curriculum. The goal of this volume is to explore current perspectives on EMI from empirical data to theoretical considerations in order to identify strengths and shortcomings of EMI programs and or curricula, defining ideologies and dominant methodologies in diverse contexts and offer evidence based implications for classroom practice, policy and future research. The chapters reflect the voices of diverse groups of people e.g. content instructors, classroom teachers, college students, parents, teacher educators etc. who experience EMI in their current educational environments in different countries.

Researching Language Learning Motivation Ali H. Al-Hoorie, Fruzsina Szabó, 2022-01-27 One of the most active areas in the field of second language acquisition, language learning motivation is a burgeoning area of research. Yet the plethora of new ideas and research directions can be confusing for newcomers to the discipline to navigate. Offering concise bite size overviews of key contemporary research concepts and directions, this book provides an invaluable guide to the contemporary state of the field. Making the discussion of key topics accessible to a wider audience, each chapter is written by a leading expert and reflects on cutting edge research issues. From well established concepts such as engagement and learning goals to emerging ideas including contagion and plurilingualism, this book provides easy to understand overviews and analysis of key contemporary themes. Helping readers understand a field which can appear highly technical and overwhelming, Researching Language Learning Motivation provides valuable insights, perspectives and practical applications.

Faculty Service-Learning Guidebook Christine M. Cress, Stephanie T. Stokamer, Thomas J. Van Cleave, Joyce P. Kaufman, 2023-07-03 This is a practical guide to designing teaching and coordinating service learning courses and for developing reciprocal community partnerships and community based research through a lens of equity that addresses the endemic racial, social, economic and environmental disparities across society. The text provides a comprehensive framework for developing both in person and on line service learning with a chapter on virtual delivery of courses that integrates the principles and practices described throughout the book. The authors uniquely integrate the how to of conducting service learning with the theoretical foundations to enact effective, equitable and inclusive community engagement. Given this moment of enormous social inequality and divisiveness, the authors offer a new definition and set of educational principles that they characterize as Equity Centered Community Engagement Excellence. These principles serve to guide academic and community engagement that is democratic recognizes the voice and expertise of community partners addresses the power imbalances between communities and academic institutions and develops an educational experience that is potentially transformative and promotes civic responsibility Informed by the literature of critical service learning critical race theory intercultural communication theory and social constructivism this book attempts to deconstruct the assumption of the preeminence of academic knowledge to reconstruct a new operational paradigm of equity centeredness that validates community capacity to guide faculty in their redesign of service learning curriculum activities collaborations and scholarship It is based on the principles of Student Agency demonstrated as enhanced skills knowledge and motivation Community Efficacy recognition of community assets and capacity building Scholarly Advocacy leveraging evidence based research based for equity centered learning serving and social justice The authors offer examples of syllabi lessons and assignments reflection questions evaluation rubrics as well as an array of teaching tips that illustrate strategies for use in the classroom and in the field The book is addressed to faculty embarking on service learning and to seasoned scholar practitioners looking for innovative ideas as well as to campus administrators who coordinate community outreach or college student volunteer services offering guidance on leveraging resources and fiscal support from external stakeholders It is also designed to serve as a resource for professional development workshops and faculty scholar learning communities It offers a rich compendium of ideas and examples from which faculty and practitioners can select exercises and elements to incorporate or adapt for their courses whether designing short term engagements or extended service learning programs

Educating African American Students Gloria Swindler Boutte, 2015-08-20 Focused on preparing educators to teach African American students this straightforward and teacher friendly text features a careful balance of published scholarship a framework for culturally relevant and critical pedagogy research based case studies of model teachers and tested culturally relevant practical strategies and actionable steps teachers can adopt Its premise is that teachers who understand Black culture as an asset rather than a liability and utilize teaching techniques that have been shown to work can and do have specific positive impacts on the educational experiences of African American children
