Pruitt, 2021-01-15 This textbook provides an accessible and interdisciplinary introduction to genocide with an emphasis on the criminal aspect of genocide It draws on sociological political and historical concepts to discuss how they contribute to our understanding of genocide as an international crime It walks students through the evolution of genocide as a criminal act and the legal responses available using case studies to demonstrate how concepts work in action It combines Criminology and Law arguing that Criminology can help explain the why and how while Law can explain the responses to crime This textbook includes a chapter on genocide denial as well as discussion questions at the end of the chapters boxed examples and further reading It speaks to students in Criminology Law Socio Legal Studies and beyond as well as to practitioners in the criminal justice field Ghosts of Archive Verne

Harris, 2020-12-21 Ghosts of Archive draws on the discourses of deconstruction intersectionality and archetypal psychology to mount an argument that archive is fundamentally and structurally spectral and that the work of archive is justice Drawing on more than 20 years of the author's research on deconstruction and archive the book posits archive as an essential resource for social justice activism and as a source or location of soul for individuals and communities Through explorations of what Jacques Derrida termed hauntology Harris invites a listening to the call for justice in conceptual spaces that are non disciplinary He argues that archive is both constructed in relation to and beset by ghosts ghosts of the living of the dead and of those not yet born and that attention should be paid to them Establishing a unique nexus between a deconstructive intersectionality and traditions of memory for justice in struggles against oppression from South Africa and elsewhere the book makes a case for a deconstructive praxis in today's archive Offering new ideas about spectrality banditry and archival activism Ghosts of Archive should appeal to those working in the disciplines of archival science information studies and psychology It should also be essential reading for those with an interest in social justice issues transitional justice history philosophy memory studies and postcolonial studies The Questions of Jesus John Dear, 2007-12-18 This illuminating the gospel may spread but it does not reach the hearts of the people As for the primal religions tradition religions for Bigirumwami they are part of what Jesus came to fulfill rather than abolish In Rwanda Western missionaries neglected the Rwandan primal religions by demonizing them and the result was that the gospel was not planted in the good soil the reason why the genocide against the Tutsi was executed in 1994 in a country where 91 percent of its population were Christians A part of exploring the Christian mission history in Rwanda this book points out the need to continue where Bigirumwami and others of his time left off in their effort of inculturation of the Christian faith in Rwanda and Africa in general An
