Model answer for the writing task

I think adulthood is the best time of life because you're old enough to make a contribution to society. Adults can act on their beliefs, whether it's through their choice of job or just through the decisions they make about how they live their life.

When you're a teenager, you have more opinions and beliefs than you've ever had before, but not being able to do anything about them is frustrating! I'd love to do something about Hong Kong's environmental problems, but as a secondary school student I can't do much. I'd like to go to university to study environmental science, and once I've graduated I can actually help to come up with practical solutions.

Being an adult has many other benefits too, of course. You can make your own decisions about what you and its influence can be seen today in elite and popular cultures in academic institutions and in publishing in scholarly monographs and in literary journalism in the most rarefied theoretical discourses and in the most commonly used clichés. Contra Instrumentalism aims to end the dominance of instrumentalism by showing how it grossly oversimplifies translation practice and fosters an illusion of immediate access to source texts. Lawrence Venuti asserts that all translation is an interpretive act that necessarily entails ethical responsibilities and political commitments. Venuti argues that a hermeneutic model offers a more comprehensive and incisive understanding of translation that enables an appreciation of not only the creative and scholarly aspects of what a translator does but also the crucial role translation plays in the cultural and social institutions that shape human life.
