Bull,Liv Lied,John D. Turner,2011-10-28 Mystery and secrecy were central concepts in the ritual rhetoric and sociological stratification of antique Mediterranean religions That the ultimate nature and workings of the divine were secret and either could not or should not be revealed except as a mystery for the initiated was widely accepted among Pagans Jews and then Christians both Gnostic and otherwise The similarities and differences in the language of mystery and secrecy across religious and cultural borders are thus crucial for understanding this important period of the history of religions The present anthology aims to present and analyze a wide selection of sources elucidating this theme reflecting the correspondingly wide scholarly interests of Professor Einar Thomassen in honor of his 60th birthday

Caribbean Interfaces Lieven d' Hulst,2007 Contemporary research on Caribbean literature displays a rich variety of themes literary and cultural categories forms genres languages Still the concept of a unified Caribbean literary space remains questionable depending upon whether one strictly limits it to the islands enlarges it to adopt a Latin American perspective or even grants it inter American dimensions This book is an ambitious tentative to bring together specialists from various disciplines neither just French Spanish English or Comparative studies specialists nor strictly Caribbean literature specialists but also theoreticians cultural studies scholars historians of cultural translation and of intercultural transfers The contributions tackle two major questions what is the best possible division of labor between comparative literature cultural anthropology and models of national or regional literary histories how should one make use of transversal concepts such as memory space linguistic awareness intercultural translation orature or hybridization Case studies and concrete projects for integrated research alternate with theoretical and historiographical contributions This volume is of utmost interest to students of Caribbean studies in general but also to anyone interested in Caribbean literatures in Spanish English and French as well as to students in comparative literature cultural studies and transfer research
