Routledge Library Editions: Criminology Various Authors,2021-02-25 Reissuing seven works originally published between 1940 and 1997 this collection spans the time in which Criminology has been a recognised academic discipline It offers a set of excellent works on diverse aspects of the field from nineteenth century criminality to burglary in the 1980s The set includes a Dictionary and several works looking at the social and psychological side of crime Nabokov Leona

Toker,2016-11-01 Vladimir Nabokov described the literature course he taught at Cornell as a kind of detective investigation of the mystery of literary structures Leona Toker here pursues a similar investigation of the enigmatic structures of Nabokov s own fiction According to Toker most previous critics stressed either Nabokov s concern with form or the humanistic side of his works but rarely if ever the two together In sensitive and revealing readings of ten novels Toker demonstrates that the need to reconcile the human element with aesthetic or metaphysical pursuits is a constant theme of Nabokov s and that the tension between technique and content is itself a key to his fiction Written with verve and precision Toker s book begins with Pnin and follows the circular pattern that is one of her subject s own favored devices Joyce and Lacan Daniel

Bristow,2016-07-15 What happens when the intellectual giant of twentieth century literature James Joyce is made an object of consideration and cause of desire by the intellectual giant of modern psychoanalysis Jacques Lacan This is what Joyce and Lacan explores in the three closely interrelated areas of reading writing and psychoanalysis by delving into Joyce s own relationship with psychoanalysis in his lifetime The book concentrates primarily on his last text Finnegans Wake the notorious difficulty of which arises from its challenging the intellect itself and our own processes of reading As well as the centrality of the Wake concepts of Joycean ontology sanity singularity and sexuality are excavated from sustained analysis of his earliest writings onward To be post Joycean as Lacan describes it means then to be in the wake not only of Joyce but also of Lacan s interventions on the Irish writer made in the mid 70s It was this encounter that gave rise to concepts that have gained currency in today's psychoanalytic theory and practice and importance in wider critical contexts The notions of the sinthome lalangue and Lacan's use of topology and knot theory are explored within as well as new theories being launched The book will be of interest to psychoanalysts literary theorists and students and teachers of literature theory or the works of Joyce and Lacan

Anxiety and the Contradictions of Culture Stephen Felder, 2024-09-20 Anxiety as not only a feeling of dread but a feeling that we dread is widely considered by both philosophical and psychoanalytic thinkers as an important signal related to our experience of the cultural and intersubjective world Stephen Felder explores the experience of anxiety through the writings of the existentialist phenomenological and psychoanalytic traditions especially Jacques Lacan to make sense out of this dreadful experience Working from Lacan's claim that the structure of anxiety and fantasy are the same Felder shows that anxiety is a signal of the Lacanian Real and thus provides us with a point of view from which to critique the cultural world by clarifying how we experience ourselves and others The chapters examine the implications of this insight for how we think about the visual field sex race consumerism and what Stuart Hall called the contradictions of culture in our attempts to live more vibrant lives and create more emancipatory practices in the twenty first century

Without the Novel Scott Black, 2019-08-23 No genre manifests the pleasure of reading and its power to consume and enchant more than romance In suspending the category of the novel to rethink the way prose fiction works Without the Novel demonstrates what literary history looks like from the perspective of such readerly excesses and adventures Rejecting the assumption that novelistic realism is the most significant tendency in the history of prose fiction Black asks three intertwined questions What is fiction without the novel What is literary history without the novel What is reading without the novel In answer this study draws on the neglected genre of romance to reintegrate eighteenth century British fiction with its classical and Continental counterparts Black addresses works of prose fiction that self consciously experiment with the formal structures and readerly affordances of romance Heliodorus's Ethiopian Story Cervantes's Don Quixote Fielding's Tom Jones Sterne's Tristram Shandy and Burney's The Wanderer Each text presents itself as a secondary satiric adaptation of anachronistic and alien narratives but in revising foreign stories each text also relays them The recursive reading that these works portray and demand makes each a self reflexive parable of romance itself Ultimately Without the Novel writes a wider weirder history of fiction organized by the recurrences of romance and informed by the pleasures of reading that define the genre
