Propaganda Blitz David Edwards, David Cromwell, 2018-09-20 Do you trust the liberal media While the tabloid and right wing press the Sun The Times the Mail and the Express are constantly criticised for dangerous bias outlets like the BBC and the Guardian are trusted by their readers to report in the interests of the public However the reality is that all corporate media is systematically filtered by the powerful interests that own manage and fund it Propaganda Blitz shows that the corporate media does not just spin the news it fundamentally distorts everything it touches hiding the real issues from public view and often completely reversing the truth This book uncovers a storm of top down campaigns behind war reporting from Iraq Syria and Palestine as well as the destruction of the credibility of figures on the left including Jeremy Corbyn and Hugo Chavez Exposing propagandists at the top levels of the BBC as well as their reporting on the Scottish independence referendum the dismantling of the NHS and looming climate chaos Propaganda Blitz explains the real meaning of objective journalism exposes the fake news about fake news and outlines a model for anti business media activism

Latinx TV in the Twenty-First Century Frederick Luis Aldama, 2022-04-19 Latinx TV in the Twenty First Century offers an expansive and critical look at contemporary television by and about U S Latinx communities This volume is comprehensive in its coverage while diving into detailed and specific examples as it navigates the complex and ever changing world of Latinx representation and creation in television In this volume editor Frederick Luis Aldama brings together leading experts who show how Latinx TV is shaped by historical social cultural regional and global contexts Contributors address head on harmful stereotypes in Latinx representation while giving key insights to a positive path forward TV narratives by and about Latinx people exist across all genres In this century we see Latinx people in sitcoms sci fi noir soap operas rom coms food shows dramas action adventure and more Latinx people appear in television across all formats from quick webisodes to serialized big arc narratives to animation and everything in between The diverse array of contributors to this volume delve into this rich landscape of Latinx TV from 2000 to today spanning the ever widening range of genres and platforms Latinx TV in the Twenty First Century argues that Latinx TV is not just television it s an entire movement Digital spaces and streaming platforms today have allowed for Latinx representation on TV that speaks to Latinx people and non Latinx people alike bringing rich and varied Latinx cultures into mainstream television and addressing urbanization immigration family life language politics gender sexuality class race and ethnicity Once heavily underrepresented and harmfully stereotypical Latinx representation on TV is beginning to give careful nuance to regional communal and familial experiences among U S Latinx people This volume unpacks the negative implications of older representation and celebrates the progress of new representation recognizing that television has come a long way but there is still a lot of important work to do for truly diverse and inclusive representation

Ida Lupino, Director Therese Grisham, Julie Grossman, 2017-05-23 Dominated by men and bound by the restrictive Hays Code postwar Hollywood offered little support for a female director who sought to make unique films on controversial subjects But Ida Lupino bucked the system writing and directing a string of movies that exposed the dark underside of American society on topics such as rape polio unwed motherhood bigamy exploitative sports and serial murder The first in depth study devoted to Lupino s directorial work this book makes a strong case for her as a trailblazing feminist auteur a filmmaker with a clear signature style and an abiding interest in depicting the plights of postwar American women Ida Lupino Director not only examines her work as a cinematic auteur but also offers a serious consideration of her diverse and long ranging career getting her start in Hollywood as an actress in her teens and twenties directing her first films in her early thirties and later working as an acclaimed director of television westerns sitcoms and suspense dramas It also demonstrates how Lupino fused generic elements of film noir and the social problem film to create a distinctive directorial style that was both highly expressionistic and grittily realistic Ida Lupino Director thus shines a long awaited spotlight on one of our greatest filmmakers

Going Places Julie Fry, Hayden Glass,2016-03-15 Migration and the movement of people is one of the critical issues confronting the world's nations in the twenty first century This book is about the economic contribution of migration to and from New Zealand one of the most frequently discussed aspects of the debate Can immigration in economic terms be more than a gap filler for the labour market and help as well with national economic transformation And what is the evidence on the effect of migration not just on house prices but also on jobs trade or broader economic performance Building on Sir Paul Callaghan s vision of New Zealand as a place where talent wants to live this book explores how we can attract skilled creative and entrepreneurial people born in other countries and whether our seventeenth region the more than 600 000 New Zealanders living abroad can be a greater national asset

Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen's Magazine ,1915 America's Addiction to Terrorism Henry A. Giroux,2016 In the United States today the term terrorism conjures up images of dangerous outside threats religious extremists and suicide bombers in particular Harder to see but all the more pervasive is the terrorism perpetuated by the United States itself whether through military force overseas or woven into the very fabric of society at home Henry Giroux in this passionate and incisive book turns the conventional wisdom on terrorism upside down demonstrating how fear and lawlessness have become organizing principles of life in the United States and violence an acceptable form of social mediation He addresses the most pressing issues of the moment from officially sanctioned torture to militarized police forces to austerity politics Giroux also examines the ongoing degradation of the education system and how young people in particular suffer its more nefarious outcomes Against this grim picture Giroux posits a politics of hope and a commitment to accurate and radical historical memory He draws on a long distinguished career developing the tenets of critical pedagogy to propose a cure for our addiction to terrorism a kind of public pedagogy that challenges the poisoned narratives of America s dis imagination machine
