Abstract

1. What does Huck's reaction to being "dressed" by the Widow Douglas suggest about his personality?
Huck is not interested in being "civilized" and this reveals his adventurous and rebellious nature. He values his freedom and preferring his previous life where he felt free to act as he pleased.
2. Mr. Watson is a devout Christian, quite a pole (ump). What can the reader infer about slavery in the setting of the novel?
From Mr. Watson's ownership of Jim, the reader can infer that slavery was common and accepted in society and widely accepted, even by those who considered themselves morally laudable or religious.

1. Where does Huck's father take him and why does Huck feel the need to run away from home? Huck's father takes him to a cabin in the woods and beatifies and tortures in the cabin. Huck feels the need to run away from home because he realizes that it is his only option to escape his father's abuse.
2. How does Huck's father react to seeing a free-black man in town? What does this reveal about his character and beliefs? Huck's father is outraged that a black man is well-dressed, educated, and even has the right to vote, which he says is an insult to himself and others who consider themselves superior. Based solely on their race, this reaction reveals his deep hatred for free and gentleman, as well as his sense of entitlement and superiority.
