Queer Reading Practices and Sexology in Fin-de-Siècle Literature Zsolt Bojti, 2025-07-28 This book scrutinises the production and transnational distribution of sexological knowledge at the turn of the century The works of three transnationally mobile authors are in the focus The Picture of Dorian Gray 1890 1891 and Teleny 1893 by and attributed to Oscar Wilde The True Story of a Vampire 1894 by Count Stanislaus Eric Stenbock and Imre A Memorandum 1906 by Edward Prime Stevenson The textual analysis is governed by references in all four works to Hungarian culture to demonstrate how they conceptualised Hungarianness and same sex desire simultaneously in the light of the new classificatory science of sexualities coming from German speaking Central Europe By foregrounding a timely literary angle and a culturalist approach this book offers non Anglocentric insights not bound by either language or nationality to shed new light on the interdisciplinary reading practices of late Victorian subjects and the ways they contributed to the emergence of fin de siècle queer fiction Victims of the Book François Proulx, 2019-11-08 Victims of the Book uncovers a long neglected but once widespread subgenre the fin de siècle novel of formation in France Novels about and geared toward adolescent male readers were imbued with a deep worry over young Frenchmen's masculinity as evidenced by titles like Crise de jeunesse Youth in Crisis 1897 La Crise virile Crisis of Virility 1898 La Vie stérile A Sterile Life 1892 and La Mortelle Impuissance Deadly Impotence 1903 In this book François Proulx examines a wide panorama of these novels many of which have rarely been studied as well as polemical essays pedagogical articles and medical treatises on the perceived threats posed by young Frenchmen's reading habits Against this cultural backdrop he illuminates all that was at stake in representations of the male reader by prominent novelists of the period including Jules Vallès Paul Bourget Maurice Barrès André Gide and Marcel Proust

In the final decades of the nineteenth century social commentators insistently characterized excessive reading as an emasculating illness that afflicted French youth. Fin de siècle writers responded to this pathologization of reading with a profusion of novels addressed to young male readers paradoxically proposing their own novels as potential cures. In the early twentieth century this corpus was critically revisited by a new generation of writers. Victims of the Book shows how Gide and Proust in particular reworked the fin de siècle paradox to subvert cultural norms about literature and masculinity proposing instead a queer pact between writer and reader.

Here fully and richly portrayed is Wilde's Irish childhood a dreamy aloof boy a stellar classicist at boarding school a born entertainer with a talent for comedy and a need for an audience his years at Oxford a brilliant undergraduate punctuated by his reckless disregard for authority his arrival in London in 1878 already noticeable everywhere his ten year marriage to Constance Lloyd the father of two boys Constance unwittingly welcoming young men into the household who became Oscar's lovers and dying in exile at the age of thirty nine Wilde's development as a playwright becoming the high priest of the aesthetic movement his successes his celebrity and in later years his irresistible pull toward another double life in flagrant defiance and disregard of England's strict sodomy laws the blackmailer's charter the tragic story of his fall that sent him to prison for two years at hard labor destroying his life and shattering his soul.

La connaissance de l'Islam dans l'Occident médiéval Marie-Thérèse d'Alverny, Charles Burnett, 2024-10-28 This volume the second in the series of Marie-Thérèse d'Alverny's selected articles to be published by Variorum gathers the majority of her studies on the understanding of Islam in the West from the early Middle Ages until the mid 13th century some related works will be included in a further selection. In the 12th century as she shows a serious effort was for the first time made to learn something of the reality behind the fabulous and scurrilous stories about Muhammad and Islam. A collection of translations from Arabic including the Koran was commissioned in 1140 by Peter the Venerable of Cluny and d'Alverny found the manuscript in which his secretary wrote these out. This discovery led her to explore other translations into Latin of the Koran and other Islamic texts to identify the work of the translators Hermann of Carinthia Robert of Ketton and Mark of Toledo and to depict the milieu in which this work was possible.
