Knowledge Production and Contradictory Functions in African Higher Education Cloete, Nico, Maassen, Peter, 2015-03-01 Reviews This volume brings together excellent scholarship and innovative policy discussion to demonstrate the essential role of higher education in the development of Africa and of the world at large Based on deep knowledge of the university system in several African countries this book will reshape the debate on development in the global information economy for years to come It should be mandatory reading for academics policy makers and concerned citizens in Africa and elsewhere Manuel Castells Professor Emeritus University of California at Berkeley Laureate of the Holberg Prize 2012 and of the Balzan Prize 2013 The dominant global discourse in higher education now focuses on world class universities inevitably located predominantly in North America Europe and increasingly East Asia The rest of the world including Africa is left to play catch up But that discourse should focus rather on the tensions even contradictions between excellence and engagement with which all universities must grapple Here the African experience has much to offer the high participation and generously resourced systems of the so called developed world This book offers a critical review of that experience and so makes a major contribution to our understanding of higher education Sir Peter Scott former editor of Times Higher Education and Professor of Higher Education Studies University College London Institute of Education
