Colonial Justice and Decolonization in the High Court of Tanzania, 1920-1971 Ellen R. Feingold, 2018-02-09 This book is the first study of the development and decolonization of a British colonial high court in Africa It traces the history of the High Court of Tanzania from its establishment in 1920 to the end of its institutional process of decolonization in 1971 This process involved disentangling the High Court from colonial state structures and imperial systems that were built on racial inequality while simultaneously increasing the independence of the judiciary and application of British judicial principles Feingold weaves together the rich history of the Court with a discussion of its judges both as members of the British Colonial Legal Service and as individuals to explore the impacts and intersections of imperial policies national politics and individual initiative Colonial Justice and Decolonization in the High Court of Tanzania is a powerful reminder of the crucial roles played by common law courts in the operation and legitimization of both colonial and post colonial states East African Law

Journal, 1972 African Data Privacy Laws Alex B. Makulilo, 2016-11-30 This volume presents analyses of data protection systems and of 26 jurisdictions with data protection legislation in Africa as well as additional selected countries without comprehensive data protection laws In addition it covers all sub regional and regional data privacy policies in Africa Apart from analysing data protection law the book focuses on the socio economic contexts political settings and legal culture in which such laws developed and operate It bases its analyses on the African legal culture and comparative international data privacy law In Africa protection of personal data the central preoccupation of data privacy laws is on the policy agenda The recently adopted African Union Cyber Security and Data Protection Convention 2014 which is the first and currently the only single treaty across the globe to address data protection outside Europe serves as an illustration of such interest In addition there are data protection frameworks at sub regional levels for West Africa East Africa and Southern Africa Similarly laws on protection of personal data are increasingly being adopted at national plane Yet despite these data privacy law reforms there is very little literature about data privacy law in Africa and its recent developments This book fills that gap
