Abstract

Research papers are highly recognized in scholar fraternity. In addition to that the published research work provides a big weight-age to career growth and helps to get admission in reputed universities. Research Scholars doing Ph.D it has become mandatory to publish their research papers at international level academic Journals or scholarly (Peer Reviewed) journals. And many of the students who wish to apply for further studies in technical courses will discover that relevant published research papers help during admission process. So, in this paper we will highlight and enlist the proven steps to write the research paper for peer-reviewed journals.

Keywords: Research, fraternity, published, universities, international, Peer Reviewed

INTRODUCTION

What is a research paper?

"Research paper." What image comes into mind as you hear those words: working with stacks of articles and books, hunting the "treasure" of others' thoughts? Whatever image you create, it's a sure bet that you're envisioning sources of information--articles, books, people, and artworks. Yet a research paper is more than the sum of your sources, more than a collection of different pieces of information about a topic, and more than a review of the literature in a field.

A research paper is piece of academic writing based on its author's original research work on a particular topic and the analysis and interpretation of research findings.

In other words, a research paper is an expanded essay that presents your own interpretation or evaluation or argument. When you write an essay, you use everything that you personally know and have thought about a subject. When you write a research paper you build upon what you know about the subject and make a deliberate attempt to find out what experts know. A research paper involves surveying a field of knowledge in order to find the best possible information in that field. And that survey can be orderly and focused, if you know how to approach it. Don't worry--you won't get lost in a sea of sources.

To achieve supreme excellence in anything we do, we need more than just the knowledge. Like a cricket player aiming for world cup, we must have a positive attitude and believe that we have the ability to achieve it. That will be the real start for writing A⁺ research paper.

This book is for university students with at least a mid-intermediate level of English. It can be used as part of an English for Academic Purposes (EAP) course either alone or with the companion volume Giving an Academic Presentation in English. The chapters are independent so that EAP teachers and students can choose those sections that best fit their needs. This means that a course can range from a minimum of 20 hours up to 60 hours or more. There is an introductory chapter that includes what role academics play in today's world where success is not just measured in terms of paper output but also involvement in interdisciplinary projects and supporting society at large. Each chapter covers a particular section of a paper: Abstract, Introduction, Methods, etc., and begins with a discussion exercise on what the exact purpose of each section is. This purpose is also highlighted by comparisons with non-academic situations where similar skills are required There are many examples and templates none of which are lengthy or complex but which are designed to highlight key points Students learn what style to adopt we vs impersonal the correct tenses to use in each section typical mistakes and useful phrases The course is highly practical and is also designed to be fun to use Other books in the series Giving an Academic Presentation in English Essential English Grammar and Communication Strategies Adrian Wallwork is the author of more than 40 ELT and EAP textbooks He has trained several thousand PhD students and researchers from around 50 countries to write research papers and give presentations He is also the co founder of e4ac com an editing agency for non native English speaking researchers
