describes how the peacebuilding field came into being how it defines who belongs to it and who does not and what kind of group culture it has generated Using an innovative methodology she investigates the motivations of individuals who become peacebuilders their professional trajectories and networks and the good peacebuilder as an ideal For many working in peacebuilding in various ways as an aid worker on the ground as a lawyer at the United Nations or as an academic in a think tank has become not merely a livelihood but also a form of participation in world politics As a field peacebuilding has developed techniques for incorporating and training new members yet its internal politics also create the conditions of exclusion that often result in practical failures of the peacebuilding enterprise By providing a critical account of the social mechanisms that make up the peacebuilding field Goetze offers deep insights into the workings of Western domination and global inequalities

Political Analysis Colin Hay,2017-03-14 Political Analysis provides an accessible and engaging yet original introduction and distinctive contribution to the analysis of political structures institutions ideas and behaviours and above all to the political processes through which they are constantly made and remade Following an innovative introduction to the main approaches and concepts in political analysis the text focuses thematically on the key issues which currently concern and divide political analysts including the boundaries of the political the question of structure agency and power the dynamics of political change the relative significance of ideas and material factors and the challenge posed by postmodernism which the author argues the discipline can strengthen itself by addressing without allowing it to become a recipe for paralysis

Library of Congress Catalog: Motion Pictures and Filmstrips Library of Congress,1968 Skin Acts Michelle Ann Stephens,2014-08-24 In Skin Acts Michelle Ann Stephens explores the work of four iconic twentieth century black male performers Bert Williams Paul Robeson Harry Belafonte and Bob Marley to reveal how racial and sexual difference is both marked by and experienced in the skin She situates each figure within his cultural moment examining his performance in the context of contemporary race relations and visual regimes Drawing on Lacanian psychoanalysis and performance theory Stephens contends that while black skin is subject to what Frantz Fanon called the epidermalizing and hardening effects of the gaze it is in the flesh that other intersubjective pre discursive and sensuous forms of knowing take place between artist and audience Analyzing a wide range of visual musical and textual sources Stephens shows that black subjectivity and performativity are structured by the tension between skin and flesh sight and touch difference and sameness

Visualizing Blackness and the Creation of the African American Literary Tradition Lena Hill, 2014-02-17 Negative stereotypes of African Americans have long been disseminated through the visual arts This original and incisive study examines how black writers use visual tropes as literary devices to challenge readers' conceptions of black identity Lena Hill charts two hundred years of African American literary history from Phillis Wheatley to Ralph Ellison and engages with a variety of canonical and lesser known writers Chapters interweave literary history museum culture and visual analysis of numerous illustrations with close readings of Booker T Washington Gwendolyn Bennett Zora Neale Hurston Melvin Tolson and others Together these sections register the degree to which African American writers rely on vision its modes consequences and insights to demonstrate black intellectual and cultural sophistication Hill's provocative study will interest scholars and students of African American literature and American literature more broadly
