approaches to the practice of arts based methods while providing a guided overview of ABER and include pedagogical features in each chapter Exercises are designed to assist educational researchers who wish to expand their repertoire of methodologies The authors also weave into the discussion the possibilities and limitations of many types of arts based methods while introducing readers to the growing methodological literature By offering a tapestry of ways to engage the novice researcher the book illustrates that it is not always possible to separate cognitive findings from aesthetic knowing This book will help qualitative researchers to expand their methodologies to include arts based approaches to their projects and by doing so reshape their identities as qualitative researchers It also offers some evaluative criteria and tool kits for experimenting with various arts and educational research

Taking Back Philosophy Bryan W. Van Norden, 2017-12-05 Are American colleges and universities failing their students by refusing to teach the philosophical traditions of China India Africa and other non Western cultures This biting and provocative critique of American higher education says yes Even though we live in an increasingly multicultural world most philosophy departments stubbornly insist that only Western philosophy is real philosophy and denigrate everything outside the European canon In Taking Back Philosophy Bryan W Van Norden lambastes academic philosophy for its Eurocentrism insularity and complicity with nationalism and issues a ringing call to make our educational institutions live up to their cosmopolitan ideals In a cheeky agenda setting and controversial style Van Norden an expert in Chinese philosophy proposes an inclusive multicultural approach to philosophical inquiry He showcases several accessible examples of how Western and Asian thinkers can be brought into productive dialogue demonstrating that philosophy only becomes deeper as it becomes increasingly diverse and pluralistic Taking Back Philosophy is at once a manifesto for multicultural education an accessible introduction to Confucian and Buddhist philosophy a critique of the ethnocentrism and anti intellectualism characteristic of much contemporary American politics a defense of the value of philosophy and a liberal arts education and a call to return to the search for the good life that defined philosophy for Confucius Socrates and the Buddha Building on a popular New York Times opinion piece that suggested any philosophy department that fails to teach non Western philosophy should be renamed a Department of European and American Philosophy this book will challenge any student or scholar of philosophy to reconsider what constitutes the love of wisdom
