

PARTS MANUAL

MODEL K361 - 18 HP

Specification Series 23

How To Find Your Part Number

- 1 Refer to the Component Exploded View on page 2 (Fig. A1). A number major or minor designating brand and standard for engine components should appear to the right of each component group. Group the four part type codes from left to right as shown below:
a. The first two codes are the model designator engine component and specify the part and type for comparison to identify the Kohler brand.
b. The last two codes specify the engine.
- 2 Check the type of engine against the engine type identified by the engine designator. If the type of engine is not identified, refer to the type of engine in the type code area on the right side of the exploded view.

Illustrations are not intended to show the exact shape for all components shown.

The top two design numbers and part type code are used to identify.

Locate your Part Number. A group designator shows your brand. Number to the right of the designator shows the following brand and variation number or code part number and variation number.

- 3 Refer to the type for part which you plan to use. Locate the part in the exploded view. The designator number to the right of the designator shows the variation number. If the part is shown below the part code, the part number is listed to the right of the variation number.
