What Students Can Measure Today

The graph to the left provides the National Percentile Rank (NPR) for each test and test composite in the assessment. The NPR indicates the percent of students in the same grade who obtained a lower score than your child.

How Student's SAT Achievement Yesterday and Today

The two Assessments measure student achievement and growth. The National Standard Score (NSS) describes a student's location on an achievement continuum from elementary through high school. The National Grade Equivalent (NGE) describes student performance in terms of grade level and month. Both NSS and NGE make it possible to follow each child's educational growth from year to year by comparing this year's scores to those from earlier years.

Proficiency level indicators tell whether your student is considered proficient as defined by the state of Iowa (click here).

This student is predicted to receive ACT scores from 25-30.

These two paragraphs describe how to interpret your student's NCEs, NPPs, and NCIs*.
