For more specific guidance on capitalization, see the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers, 7th Edition (MLA 7th Edition).

The list of works cited uses a half-inch hanging indent. Table titles and source text use a quarter-inch indent. Access all of these text formats on the Home tab, in the Styles gallery.

MLA format discourages extensive use of content notes. But, when you need to add notes, you can use either endnotes or footnotes. MLA 7th Edition indicates that you should use a superscript, Arabic numeral at an appropriate place in the text for the note reference. To begin the note text, use the same numeral, not superscript, and followed by a period.

If you use endnotes, they should be on a separate page, at the end of your text and preceding the list of works cited. If you use footnotes, consult your professor for preferred format.

From Teaching to Mentoring Lee Herman, Alan Mandell, 2005-10-10. What is mentoring? What makes a teacher a mentor? From Teaching to Mentoring is an argument for the power, practicality, and the basic good of a simple educational idea. The authors advocate a sound, comprehensive, and lifelong education, shifting the emphasis of the learning process to the needs of the student. Whilst heeding traditional criteria of educational excellence, they ask for profound educational and political transformations. Teachers become collaborative inquirers with their students. Students become skilled and lifelong independent learners. Academic institutions become learning communities embracing the full diversity of human curiosity and experience. The book covers discussion on what mentoring is and why it is now so much in demand. It details the distinctive features of mentoring, including asking questions, students' reflections and responses, and collaborative curriculum planning. Drawing upon two decades of extensive research and practice, and using a variety of illuminating case studies, the authors offer a stimulating and thorough examination of mentoring. This combination of theory and practice will be invaluable to anyone involved in the teaching of adults in further and higher education, as well as university administrators, programme directors, and developing and training officers.

The St. Martin's Guide to Writing Rise B. Axelrod, Charles R. Cooper, 2010-01-26. This textbook provides instruction in college-level rhetoric and writing. It offers readings, a research manual, a handbook, and supports a range of approaches to teaching and learning, including collaboration, visual rhetoric, personal writing, writing about literature, writing in the community, and the workplace. Field research, portfolios, oral presentations, essay exams, and ESL. It contains step-by-step guides to writing specific kinds of essays: remembering events, writing profiles, explaining a concept, finding common ground, arguing a position, proposing a solution, justifying an evaluation, speculating about causes, and interpreting stories. Because so much college writing requires strong argumentation skills, four of the assignment chapters focus on argumentative writing, and a separate strategies chapter covers theses, reasons, and support, counterarguments, and logical fallacies. Three full chapters on research give students useful strategies not only for conducting field, library, and Internet research, but also for evaluating sources, deciding whether to quote, paraphrase, or summarize, avoiding plagiarism, and documenting sources. The authors have included 39
