

Modern Language Association (MLA) 9th Edition Format and Documentation

This handout covers the most common elements of MLA 9 formatting and documentation. For further information, consult the MLA Manual, 9th edition, or visit the MLA website: <https://www.mla.org>.

Formatting Your Paper (see sections 1.1-1.7 in MLA 9)

- ✓ Margins: All margins (top, bottom, and sides) should be set at 1 inch, with .5 inches between the page number and top margin.
- ✓ Typeface and Font: An easily readable typeface, such as Times New Roman (TNR) and anywhere between 11 and 13 point font (unless your instructor specifies a typeface and/or font).
- ✓ Page Numbering: Provide the page number flush right in the running head preceded by your last name by selecting insert > page numbers. If a project has several authors and all authors' surnames do not fit in a running head, include only the page number (the same font and typeface as the paper).
- ✓ Spacing: Unless otherwise indicated, the entire document should be double-spaced (including the Works Cited page). Adjust Microsoft Word's default line spacing: Home > Paragraph > Line Spacing Options > Spacing > After > 0 pt.
- ✓ Headings and Subheadings: Subheadings are flush with the left margin. Each heading level should appear in the same appropriate style and size (level styles below). Avoid using all capital letters for headings or numbers and letters to designate headings unless doing so is conventional in the discipline you're working in. No heading level should have only one occurrence (exceptions are the paper or chapter title, headings for notes, and works cited).

Heading Level 1

Heading Level 2

Heading Level 3

- ✓ Title Page: A title page is only required for group authored papers/projects (unless your instructor asks for a separate title page). Instead, the first page of the paper should begin with four double-spaced lines flush to the left margin that indicate: your name, the name(s) of the course instructor(s), the name and number of the course, and the date (in this order). The title of the paper should be on a separate line, centered and in Title Case (see sample below).

Example formatting modified from Antonia Peacock's essay in They Say, I Say 488 Edition (147-164).

1-inch margin on top, bottom, and sides of the paper

.5-inch margin between top of paper and page no.

Family Guy and Freud: Jokes and Their Relation to the Unconscious

While searching to find out the information after a long day, you probably don't think a lot about famous psychologists of the twentieth century. Sometimes, those figures don't come up often in your class—in your classes—in TV programming. Whether you're watching Living Letters or the StreetView, the likelihood is that you are not thinking of Sigmund Freud, even if you've heard of his book Jokes and Their Relation to the Unconscious. I say that you should be.

What made me think of Freud in the first place, actually, was Family Guy, the cartoon created by Seth MacFarlane. (Ironically—they watch me here.) Any of my friends can tell you that this program holds nothing fascinating for me, as a matter of fact, my high school tag-along "jester" was the lady Dennis Griffin, a character on the show (see Fig. 1). Unfortunately enough, I have almost reached the point at which I can perform our women versions of several episodes. I have even written that utters the show for free, and I will refuse to attend the first Family Guy TVTDe a demand but not in 2024. Before I was such a devotee, however, I was intensely opposed to the program for its particular brand of humor.

Indent each paragraph 2 spaces or 1 tab.

No extra spacing between paragraphs
