

The background of the cover is a light gray. Scattered across it are numerous three-dimensional geometric shapes, including cubes, pyramids, and prisms, in various colors like blue, orange, purple, and brown. Some of these shapes are partially cut or broken, creating a sense of dynamic movement and fragmentation. In the top left corner, there is a red banner with white text that is partially visible.

Helping Students Motivate Themselves Larry Ferlazzo, 2013-09-27 Give your students the tools they need to motivate themselves with tips from award winning educator Larry Ferlazzo. A comprehensive outline of common classroom challenges, this book presents immediately applicable steps and lesson plans for all teachers looking to help students motivate themselves. With coverage of brain based learning, classroom management and using technology, these strategies can be easily incorporated into any curriculum. Learn to implement solutions to the following challenges: How do you motivate students? How do you help students see the importance of personal responsibility? How do you deal with a student who is being disruptive in class? How do you regain control of an out of control class? And more. Blogger and educator Larry Ferlazzo has worked to combine literacy development with short and rigorous classroom lessons on topics such as self control, personal responsibility, brain growth and perseverance. He uses many on the spot interventions designed to engage students and connect with their personal interests. Use these practical, research based ideas to ensure all of your students are intrinsically motivated to learn.

Educational Psychology Australian Edition Anita Woolfolk, Kay Margetts, 2012-07-25 Learning and teaching is an integrated process and theory and practice cannot be separated. As in the previous Australasian edition, Educational Psychology 3e continues to emphasise the educational implications and applications of child development, cognitive science, learning and teaching. Recurring themes throughout the text include ideas about education, social and socio-cultural aspects of education, schools, families and community development, learning and curriculum, and effective teaching. Author Kay Margetts incorporates Australasian perspectives and applications using the work of Australasian researchers and teachers. Numerous examples, case studies, guidelines and practical tips from experienced teachers are used in the text to explore the connections between knowledge, understanding and practice.
