From Magic and Myth-Work to Care and Repair Simon O'Sullivan, 2025-03-11 The practices of magic and contemporary myth making in relation to landscape performance and writing From Magic and Myth Work to Care and Repair is a two part book bringing together fourteen essays broadly concerned with the fiction of the self and with practices and explorations beyond that fiction Each part of the book approaches this theme from a different angle The first part entitled On Magic and Myth Work deals with practices of transformation and with contemporary myth making in relation to landscape performance and writing The second part On Care and Repair gathers together essays that are more personal but that also look to various technologies or devices of self care alongside ideas of collaboration and the collective Crucial throughout this exploration are questions of agency and self narration but also how these connect to larger issues around historical trauma neoliberalism and ecological crisis The essays reference many other texts and fellow travellers and also draw on the author's own experiences and teaching within various art and theory worlds as well as with performance magical practices gaming and Buddhism

Romanticism and Popular Magic Stephanie Elizabeth Churms, 2019-01-16 This book explores how Romanticism was shaped by practices of popular magic It seeks to identify the place of occult activity and culture in the form of curses spells future telling charms and protective talismans in everyday life together with the ways in which such practice figures and is refigured in literary and political discourse at a time of revolutionary upheaval What emerges is a new perspective on literature's material contexts in the 1790s from the rhetorical linguistic and visual jugglery of the revolution controversy to John Thelwall's occult turn during a period of autobiographical self reinvention at the end of the decade From Wordsworth's deployment of popular magic as a socially and politically emancipatory agent in Lyrical Ballads to Coleridge's anxious engagement with superstition as a despotic system of mental enslavement and Robert Southey's wrestling with an increasingly alluring conservatism he associated with a reliance on ultimately incarcerating systems of superstition
