Towards an Integrated Environmental Permit in China Xiheng Chen, 2024-08-06 This book examines the extent to which the regulatory design of the emissions permit system in China taking into account the EU's regulatory experience with integration and from the perspective of the specific Chinese situation provides opportunities for or hinders the implementation of integrated pollution prevention and control It was found that China's permitting system provides regulatory opportunities for integrated control of emissions to air water and land but that some challenges remain particularly in terms of environmental effectiveness and environmental trade offs This book is not only aimed at the academic community but may also benefit policy makers by providing an explanation of the rationale for integrated environmental permitting together with a critical reflection on the current state of emissions permitting in China It may also be helpful to the ENGOS that focus on and are willing to comment on the choices of regulatory instruments to be made by the Chinese government particularly in the light of achieving a high level of environmental protection as a whole Proceedings of the 28th Conference of Spacecraft TT&C Technology in China Rongjun Shen, Guangliang Dong, 2017-07-25 This book collects selected papers from the 28th Conference of Spacecraft TT C Technology in China held on November 8-10 2016 The book features state of the art studies on spacecraft TT C in China with the theme of Openness Integration and Intelligent Interconnection To meet requirements of new space endeavors development of spacecraft instrumentation systems have to follow an open concept and approach in China An open spacecraft instrumentation system encompasses integrated development of different types of services integration of disciplines and specialties intelligent links and more scientific and intelligent information interface technology Researchers and engineers in the field of aerospace engineering and communication engineering can benefit from the book Holistic medicine in China learn to use Qigong, acupuncture and herbal remedies for natural healing, 2023-12-30 Introduction This book teaches a theory and practice of two natural healing methods used in China Every branch of Chinese medicine is holistic but there are countless beds of possible holistic interconnection To achieve greater synergy they must be integrated in accordance with the principles contained herein So these methods are used with greater advantages in China with some variations as you can learn them Chapter 1 and everywhere PART 2 The book is presented in two distinct parts more closely intertwined and follows the guidance of many wise professors who have the privilege of knowing over decades of study Two central ideas were repeatedly found and some teachers embodied them as formulas in a different way the essential meanings were always the same The first central idea is To learn any practice or discipline you need both a solid intellectual understanding and a solid foundation in its practical application Everyone agrees that one's own practice Qigong Taiji healing exercises acupuncture or the application of the method acupuncture herbal medicine food therapies is the ultimate goal Greater intellectual understanding may support greater practical ability but it is valuable to the extent that it serves to promote that enterprise If not it may provide some interesting conversations but it won't tangentially improve your health and life A second central idea is Mastery means mastery or basic Basic principles are the reason for theory and practice A broad solid foundation provides stability for quality construction and growth Even if you choose to build only one base that will be your base in any time of difficulty PART 1 Teorias Fundamentais da Medicina Chinesa presents the theoretical foundations of all Chinese medical science and philosophy Embora is not as detailed as a medical book it is quite extensive for two reasons It provides the intellectual core necessary to understand and realize and deeply familiarize the Western reader with a different way of seeing the world from a Chinese perspective The concepts and practices taught throughout this book arise from a cultural perspective and if we want to learn to apply those practices in our daily lives it will be necessary to make some effort to abandon our own cultural preconceptions and see things with new eyes The details in Part 1 are intended to facilitate that change in perception A majority of PART 2 Holistic Self Care with Chinese Medicine carefully teaches the practical foundations of two Chinese holistic self care methods using the principles learned in Part 1 and offers plenty of room to grow as you become more adept at each Doing practices regularly is the most important thing and in the final analysis leads to the domain giving you the simple most valuable and effective options to assume or control your health in a variety of natural and holistic ways These are methods that you can use forever and that greatly reduce the likelihood of needing to see any doctor whether Chinese or Western

Inequality and Globalization Archawa Paweenawat, Robert M. Townsend, 2024-07-09 A remedy for the gap between micro and macro data making measures of inequality and national income consistent with each other Increasing inequality the impact of globalization and the disparate effects of financial regulation and innovation are extraordinarily important topics that fuel spirited policy debates And yet the facts underlying these debates are of doubtful accuracy In reality as Archawa Paweenawat and Robert Townsend show in Inequality and Globalization there is a large gap between micro household surveys which measure key outcomes such as inequality and aggregated financial accounts which measure macroeconomic totals and growth Paweenawat and Townsend propose a remedy integrated financial accounts in which the flows in income statements including saving and investment are consistent with the changes in financial assets and liabilities in the balance sheet at micro and macro levels None of the leading US micro household surveys or macro accounts meets this criterion Drawing on extensive data from fieldwork in Thailand Paweenawat and Townsend show how consistent integrated financial accounts at the individual household and small enterprise level can be created using household and firm survey data Aggregated to the village level these accounts can link anecdotal stories of individual households to their financial accounts document the real impact on them from growth and assess what would have happened to them if trade and financial liberalization had not been allowed Paweenawat and Townsend then describe the next logical step creating integrated financial accounts for the United States working from the ground up and the top down Only with these integrated accounts will policy debates on inequality and globalization have a solid factual basis
