the new technological media and a revolutionary concept of historical action and understanding Written in the form of theses what Cadava calls snapshots in prose the book memorializes Benjamin's own poetic method of writing It enacts a mode of conceiving history that is neither linear nor successive but rather discontinuous constructed from what Benjamin calls dialectical images In this way it not only suggests the essential rapport between the fragmentary form of Benjamin's writing and his effort to write a history of modernity but it also skillfully clarifies the relation between Benjamin and his contemporaries the relation between fascism and aesthetic ideology It gives us the most complete picture to date of Benjamin's reflections on history
