Nine-Tenths of the Law Christian Lund, 2021-01-05 An exploration of the relationship between possession and legalization across Indonesia and how people navigate dispossession The old aphorism possession is nine tenths of the law is particularly relevant in Indonesia which has seen a string of regime changes and a shifting legal landscape for property claims Ordinary people struggle to legalize their possessions and claim rights in competition with different branches of government as well as police army and private gangs This book explores the relationship between possession and legalization across Indonesia examining the imaginative and improvisational interpretations of law by which Indonesians navigate dispossession

A statistical examination of the evolution and properties of libre software Israel Herraiz, The Making of the Indo-Islamic World André Wink, 2020-08-06 In a new accessible narrative Andre Wink presents his major reinterpretation of the long term history of India and the Indian Ocean region from the perspective of world history and geography Situating the history of the Indianized territories of South Asia and Southeast Asia within the wider history of the Islamic world he argues that the long term development and transformation of Indo Islamic history is best understood as the outcome of a major shift in the relationship between the sedentary peasant societies of the river plains the nomads of the great Saharasian arid zone and the seafaring populations of the Indian Ocean This revisionist work redraws the Asian past as the outcome of the fusion of these different types of settled and mobile societies placing geography and environment at the centre of human history

Al-Hind: The Making of the Indo-Islamic World André Wink, 2025-02-27 This book provides a new answer to an old and often asked question why did the bulk of conversion to Islam take place not in the imperial heartlands of the Indo Islamic world but among the indigenous populations of the Indus borderlands and the coastal maritime and insular peripheries of the Indian Ocean and the Malay Indonesian archipelago The answer is found in the conjunction of geographical political and economic factors affecting the Indo Islamic states of the 13th to 17th centuries both in their medieval origins and their interaction with the Portuguese Estado da India and the East India Companies

Islam in Modern Thailand Rajeswary Ampalavanar Brown,2013-10-01 This book addresses the complexity of Islam in Thailand by focusing on Islamic charities and institutions affiliated to the mosque By extrapolating through Islam and the waqf Islamic charity in different regions of Thailand the diversity in races and institutions it demonstrates the regional contrasts within Thai Islam The book also underlines the importance of the internal histories of these separate spaces and the processes by which institutions and ideologies become entrenched It goes on to look at the socio economic transformation that is taking place within the context of trading networks through Islamic institutions and civil networks linked to mosques madrasahs and regional power brokers Brown casts this study of private Islamic welfare as strengthening rather than weakening relations with the secular Thai state The current regime s effectiveness in coopting these Muslim elites including Lutfi and Wisoot into state bureaucracies assists in widening their popular base in the south in the north east and in Bangkok Such appointments were efficacious in reinforcing the elite s Islamic identity within a modern secular literate and cosmopolitan Thai culture In challenging existing studies of Thai Muslims as furtive protest minorities this book diverts our attention to how Islamic philanthropy provides the logic and dynamism behind the creation of autonomous spaces for these independent groups affording unusual insights into their economic political and social histories      Treasury Decisions Under Customs and Other Laws United States.
