and the criminalization of so called runaway brides and undocumented workers tarnished the myth of ethnic homogeneity and exposed the contradictions at the heart of South Korea's transnational kin making project Unlike migrant brides who could acquire citizenship migrant workers were denied the rights of long term settlement and stringent quotas restricted their entry As a result many Chosŏn migrants arranged paper marriages and fabricated familial ties to South Korean citizens to bypass the state apparatus of border control Making and Faking Kinship depicts acts of counterfeit kinship false documents and the leaving behind of spouses and children as strategies implemented by disenfranchised people to gain mobility within the region's changing political economy Castoffs of Capital Lamia Karim, 2022-11-22 FINALIST FOR THE GREGORY BATESON PRIZE FROM THE AMERICAN ANTHROPOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION Dispelling stereotypes about garment workers in the global apparel industry Castoffs of Capital examines how female garment workers experience their work and personal lives within the stranglehold of global capital Drawing on fieldwork in Bangladesh anthropologist Lamia Karim focuses attention onto the lives of older women aged out of factory work heretofore largely ignored thereby introducing a new dimension to the understanding of a female headed workforce that today numbers around four million in Bangladesh Bringing a feminist labor studies lens Castoffs of Capital foregrounds these women not only as workers but as mothers wives sisters lovers friends and political agents Focusing on relations among work gender and global capital's targeting of poor women to advance its market penetration Karim shows how women navigate these spaces by adopting new subject formations She locates these women's aspirations for the good life not only in material comforts but also in their longings for love and sexual fulfillment that help them momentarily forget the precarity of their existence under the shadow of capital Through richly detailed ethnographic studies this innovative and beautifully written book examines the making and unmaking of these women's wants and desires loves and tribulations hopes and despairs and triumphs and struggles

The shock that Minneapolis restaurateur Jane Lawless is in for when Chester Garrity her ex husband returns to a city that he swore he'd never see again is nothing compared to Chester's own. After their divorce many years ago he took off with his inheritance to travel the world leaving Jane with enough seed money to open her first restaurant which worked out well for Jane but less so for Chester. Now he's back and penniless or as he would prefer to say between fortunes. He's working an angle to make his next one by selling a priceless artifact recently looted from the Baghdad Museum but it all falls through when he wakes up next to the dead body of his buyer with no memory of what happened the night before. Panicked Chester flees the scene eventually returning to cover his tracks only to find that someone has already taken care of that for him but at what price. The Cruel Ever After the newest Jane Lawless mystery from Lambda and Minnesota Book Award winning MWA Grand Master author Ellen Hart is filled with the intrigue and deception that makes it one of the most engrossing series on shelves today.

Fake News Nation James W. Cortada, William Aspray, 2019-10-01 How rumors, lies and misrepresentations shaped American history. After the election of Donald Trump as president, people in the United States and across large swaths of Europe, Latin America and Asia engaged in the most intensive discussion in modern times about falsehoods pronounced by public officials. Fake facts in their various forms have long been present in American life, particularly in its politics, public discourse and business activities going back to the time when the country was formed. This book explores the long tradition of fake facts in their various guises in American history. It is one of the first historical studies to place the long history of lies and misrepresentation squarely in the middle of American political, business and science policy rhetoric. In Fake News Nation, James Cortada and William Aspray present a series of case studies that describe how lies and fake facts were used over the past two centuries in important instances in American history. Cortada and Aspray give readers a perspective on fake facts as they appear today and as they are likely to appear in the future.
